

Neighborly Notes

By JIM THOMAS
Fine project
 The 20th annual Black Creek Pioneer Village Relief Sale is set for Sat., Sept. 20. This is a fine project, worthy of support. At the first such event, held back in 1967, receipts totalled $1,728.04. Last year, the amount raised was $38,887.00. The funds are used by the Mennonite Central Committee to assist underdeveloped countries around the world. Some of the chief organizers are—Eva Burkholder, Phyllis Eyre, Mary Siemens, Pat Warriner and Joyce and Henry Turman.

Cheap drinks
 Where in town can one buy a Coke or a Pepsi for fifty cents? From the pop dispenser in front of Stouffville's I.G.A. While the vending machine sometimes hangs onto the quarters without producing the goods, at only half-a-dollar, most regular soft drink embers are still money in pocket.

Opens Tues.
 Stouffville's former French restaurant, Le Marmiton, at 124 Main Street West, re-opens Aug. 19 with a new menu, a new decor, a new owner, a new hostess and a new name. It's now called 'The Blue Orchid'. The proprietor is Leslie Ann Feller.

Lucky gulls
 Len Buckland tells me he hasn't had a golf club in his hands for the past four summers. There's nothing wrong with his swing, he says. It's just that the legs won't propel him around the course like they once did. Although missed by the boys down at John Evelyn's, there are no regrets by the birds that flit about the greens. Len once nailed an errant gull with a drive that dropped it like a stone. Shades of the Yankees' Dave Winfield!

Traffic-stopper
 It's seldom anything comes on my car radio that prompts me to pull over or even slow down so I can listen in safety. This happened Aug. 3, however, and it was the voice of a 12-year-old girl that stopped me cold. The little gal was Ashley Whitt, daughter of Blue Jay catcher Ernie Whitt. Her renditions of The Star Spangled Banner and O Canada were outstanding, deserving more than a one-paragraph 'note' in Monday morning's Star.

Well done!
 Congratulations to Radio Station CHOO at Ajax on raising

$4,500 for The Easter Seal Society from their Chili Cook-Off International held at Whitby back in May. Chris Shanahan of The Tribune's editorial staff took part in this event.

Take over
 Revenue Properties are out and Presidential Homes are in. Presidential, I'm told, is developing the remaining 32 lots in Stouffville's Westfield Estates, south of the Sales Barn.

New Ministry
 Glenn Ross Thompson, a Stouffville 'native', was recently appointed to the position of Ontario Deputy-Minister of Labor. He was formerly the Deputy-Minister of Municipal Affairs. Glenn is the son of the late Mr and Mrs A.G. Thompson, Albert Street, Stouffville and a graduate of Stouffville Dist. Secondary School. Glenn's success qualifies for the recognition of "Small Town Boy Makes Good".

Retain touch
 Reg and Lorna Button, O'Brien Avenue, Stouffville, haven't lost their touch. Both looked right at home wheeling a baby carriage along Main Street, Friday. It's this second generation that obviously keeps them looking and feeling so young.

Take a look!
 The home of Cy and Josephine Ardilla, 37 Orchard Park Boulevard, Stouffville, has taken on a 'new look' with the addition of a white picket fence around their front yard. Mr Ardilla cut all 300 pickets himself. He was assisted with the project by son Danny and son-in-law, Norm Rennie. Mr Ardilla now has a second 'contract' in the works. His daughter and son-in-law, Jennie and Bill Massie have ordered something similar for their property in Oshawa. Without realizing it, Mr Ardilla could soon be in business for himself.

On display
 Every Goodwood resident, (and ex-Goodwood resident), should have one—a souvenir of the hamlet. They're available in the Goodwood General Store. The plates are beautiful, and reasonably priced at $6.95; a prized addition to anyone's collection of china wall-hangings.

Ten-year-old Greg Ferris, 256 Blair Road, Stouffville, delivers 43 Tribune Weekenders on his route that includes Success Square Apartments, Cemetery Lane and a section of Main Street East. Greg's saving up to buy a new ball glove and a pair of hockey skates. Hockey's his favorite sport.

Glove — skates on shopping list

By JIM THOMAS
STOUFFVILLE — A new ball glove and a new pair of skates are worth working for. Ten-year-old Greg Ferris of 256 Blair Road, Stouffville, works every Tuesday and Saturday. He delivers mid-week flyers and Tribune Weekenders. His route includes Success Square Apartments; Cemetery Lane and a portion of Main Street East. Greg either walks the distance or rides his 10-speed bike, depending on the weight of his papers. On bad weather days, his father helps out. "While all dogs aren't as friendly as "Cinnabar", the family's Airedale, Greg's never been bitten. "I've been frightened a few times by one," he says. Greg's an enthusiastic athlete. He's a catcher in softball and a goaltender in hockey. He also participates in track and field with the high jump his specialty.

Firearms case is adjourned
