

Sympathy extended

By MARJORIE WOODLAND
FOURTH LINE—The sympathy of the community is extended to Elva Symes and Lily Norton in the loss of their sister, Mrs. Henry Stevens of Palmerston, Ontario. She was stricken with a fatal heart attack and her funeral was held Aug. 11.

Awareness of the approach of fall is felt as the CNE is scheduled to open this week. Helen Hockley, our 1985 Uxbridge Fair Queen, will be among the competitors for higher honors when the CNE Queen is chosen today (Aug. 13).

There was a pretty wedding at Goodwood United Church on Saturday. United in marriage were Janis Yake, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Yake, and Danny Blackley of Goodwood. The UCW provided a bountiful wedding supper. Guests were present from Florida, Ohio and Alberta. The couple will reside in Stouffville.

Rev. Harley Winborne of Stouffville will be guest speaker at Goodwood Baptist Church on Sunday, Aug. 17 at 11 a.m. The Sunday School will hold its picnic at the Hockley home, Fifth Line, on Thursday evening, Aug. 14. Swimming and games will follow a 6 p.m. picnic supper.

One of the men then ripped the phone jack out of the wall and they both ran downstairs and disappeared. Nothing was stolen.

The only description of the suspects are that they appeared tall and slim, had on dark clothes and possibly masks.
