Area girls bid for Dairy Princess crown

Nineteen-year-old Sharon Wilson of R.R. 2, Uxbridge will represent Ontario County in the Provincial Dairy Princess Competition at the Canadian National Exhibition next week. —Jim Thomas

Compete at 'Ex'

SANDY ATKINSON

On Aug. 27, one of 43 young ladies will be crowned Ontario's Dairy Princess at the Canadian National Exhibition.

Participants locally are Sharon Wilson, (Ontario County), of R.R. 2, Uxbridge and Sandy Atkinson, (York Region), of R.R. 1, Schomberg.

Sandy competes Aug. 20. Sharon follows Aug. 23. The preliminary competitions will be held in the East Annex of the Coliseum.

Sandy, a graduate of Guelph University, is the daughter of Glenn and Velma Atkinson. Sharon, a graduate of Uxbridge Secondary School, is the daughter of Olive Wilson and the late Lloyd Wilson. She is presently enrolled in a five-week History of Music Course at Toronto University.

Sandy is employed as an O.D.H.I.C. supervisor for the Ontario Dairy Herd Improvement Corporation in the Victoria-Peterborough area.

Both have been active in 4-H work.

During the past year, Sharon and Sandy have visited dozens of schools in Durham and York Regions as well as attending many agriculturally related functions in their districts. Sharon describes her busy schedule as "a challenge, but fun."
