

Riders set for tomorrow's CARD-a-thon

A group of horseback riders will take part in a 25-kilometre fundraising trek tomorrow (Aug. 24) through the York Regional Forest in Whitchurch-Stouffville.

The Community Association for the Riding Disabled begins its CARD-a-thon between 9 and 11 a.m. at Al's Tack Shop, located on the Vandorf Sideroad west of Hwy 48.

Participants will ride on well-marked trails and will be eligible for spot prizes and finishing ribbons.

Completion crests will be presented to prompt pledge collectors, while trophies go to the highest-earning single and group entries.

Registrations are accepted and pledge sheets available at Al's Tack Shop, R.R. 4, Stouffville, or at the CARD Variety Club Equestrian Centre, 4777 Dufferin St., Downsview.

For more information contact 640-2011 or 640-1727.

MLT looking for new blood

Here's a chance to become involved with theatre. Markham Little Theatre needs new blood and is looking for people to audition for "Blithe Spirit", a Noel Coward play.

Markham Little Theatre is a community theatre group presenting several plays a year from the Markham Theatre.

Several of its members are professional, although most are amateur.

To get involved, previous experience is not necessary, only the desire.

Auditions take place Aug. 26 and 28 at 8 p.m. at the Cedargrove Community Centre.

For more information call Lillian Sievanen, director, evenings at 471-1644 or Bunty Webb, secretary, days at 294-2535.
