

Eye protection a must

Eye injuries could have been prevented in more than 90 per cent of the cases, according to the local branch of the Industrial Accident Prevention Association.

Thus the reason behind the upcoming dinner seminar addressing the topic of eye safety in and out of the workplace.

Dr. Tom Pashby, an Ophthalmologist practicing in Toronto with a special interest in sports-related injuries, is the guest speaker.

The seminar, to be held at the Cullen Country Barns at Steeles Ave. and Kennedy Rd. in Markham, is scheduled for Thursday, Sept. 18 at 5:15 p.m. with the dinner starting at 6 p.m. The cost is $19 per person. For more information call 965-8888.

Heritage Festival brings back Markham's past

If the clickety-clack of spoked wheeled carriages, the smell of fresh baked bread, and the sight of nimble fingers making quilts and hooking rugs has you pining for that pioneering spirit then you're in luck.

The Markham District Heritage Festival is returning to the Markham Museum next Saturday.

Several community groups have contributed their time and efforts to make the thirteenth annual festival a success.

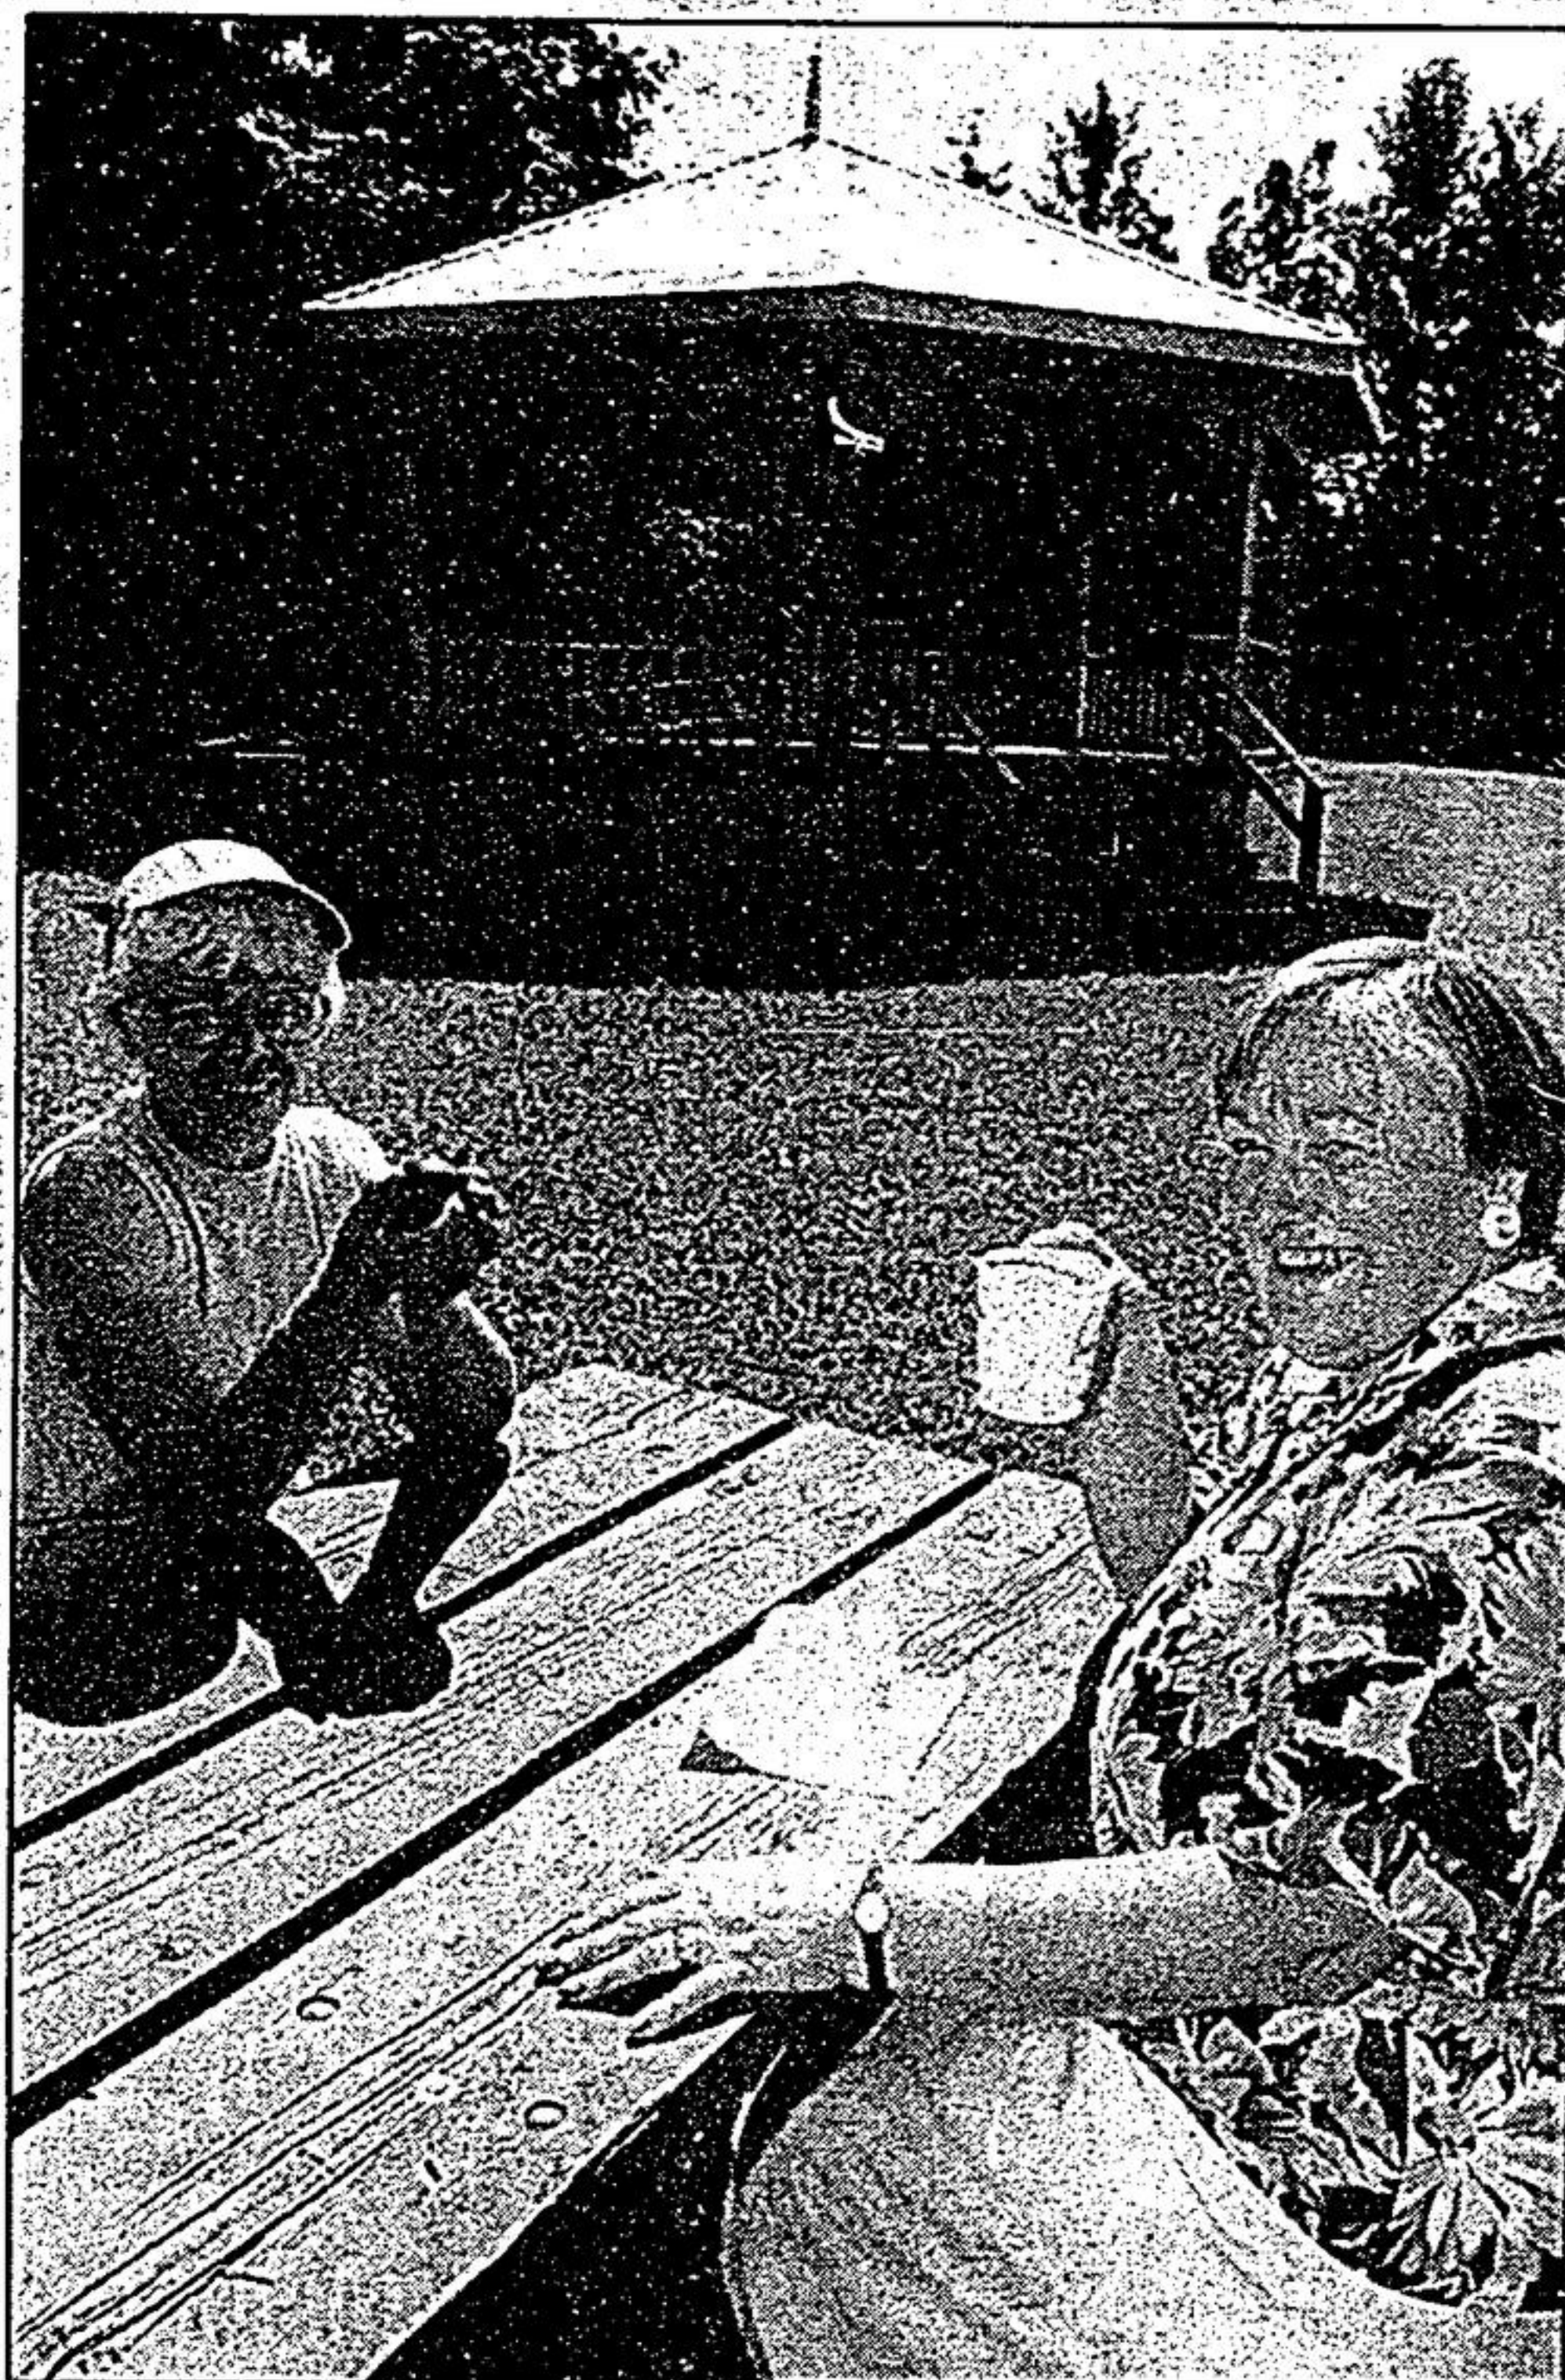

Featured are a variety of demonstrations by the Markham Guild of Village Crafts of turn-of-the-century crafts such as spinning, weaving, and wool dyeing.

Markham's Lion's Club has built an old-time bandstand which will showcase the talents of the Vinegar Dip Dixie Jazz Band.

The festival begins at 10:30 a.m. on Saturday, Sept. 6 and continues until 4 p.m. Admission is $2 for adults and 50 cents for youths. Children under 12 are admitted free. Ample parking is available.

New band stand

A band stand, designed in a traditional style, is the newest addition to the Markham Museum grounds. It was built by Markham Lions Club members this summer just in time for the museum's Heritage Festival scheduled for next Saturday. Here, volunteers Phyllis Hollinger (left) and Trudy Tatangelo enjoy a bite of lunch.
