SEPTEMBER 3, 1986

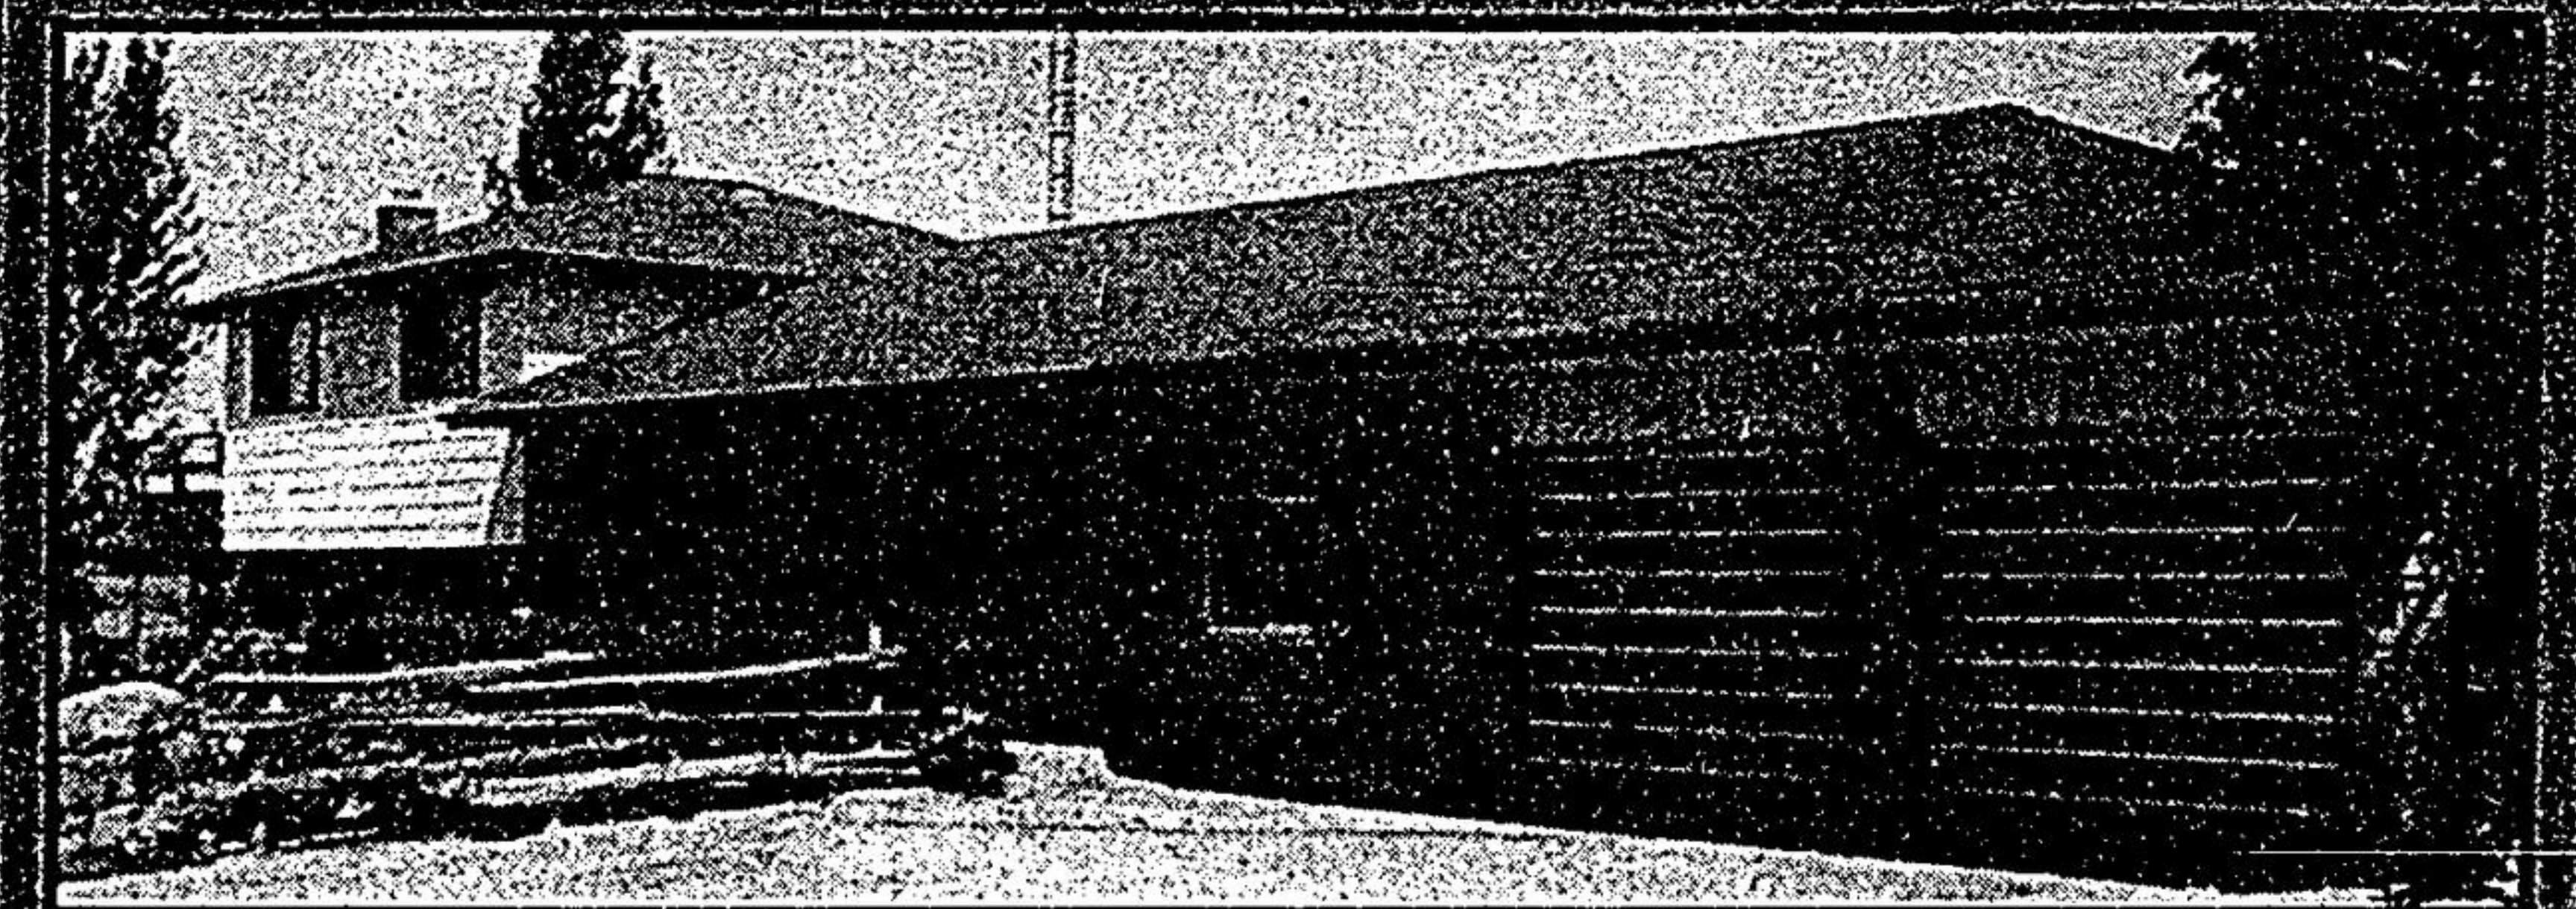

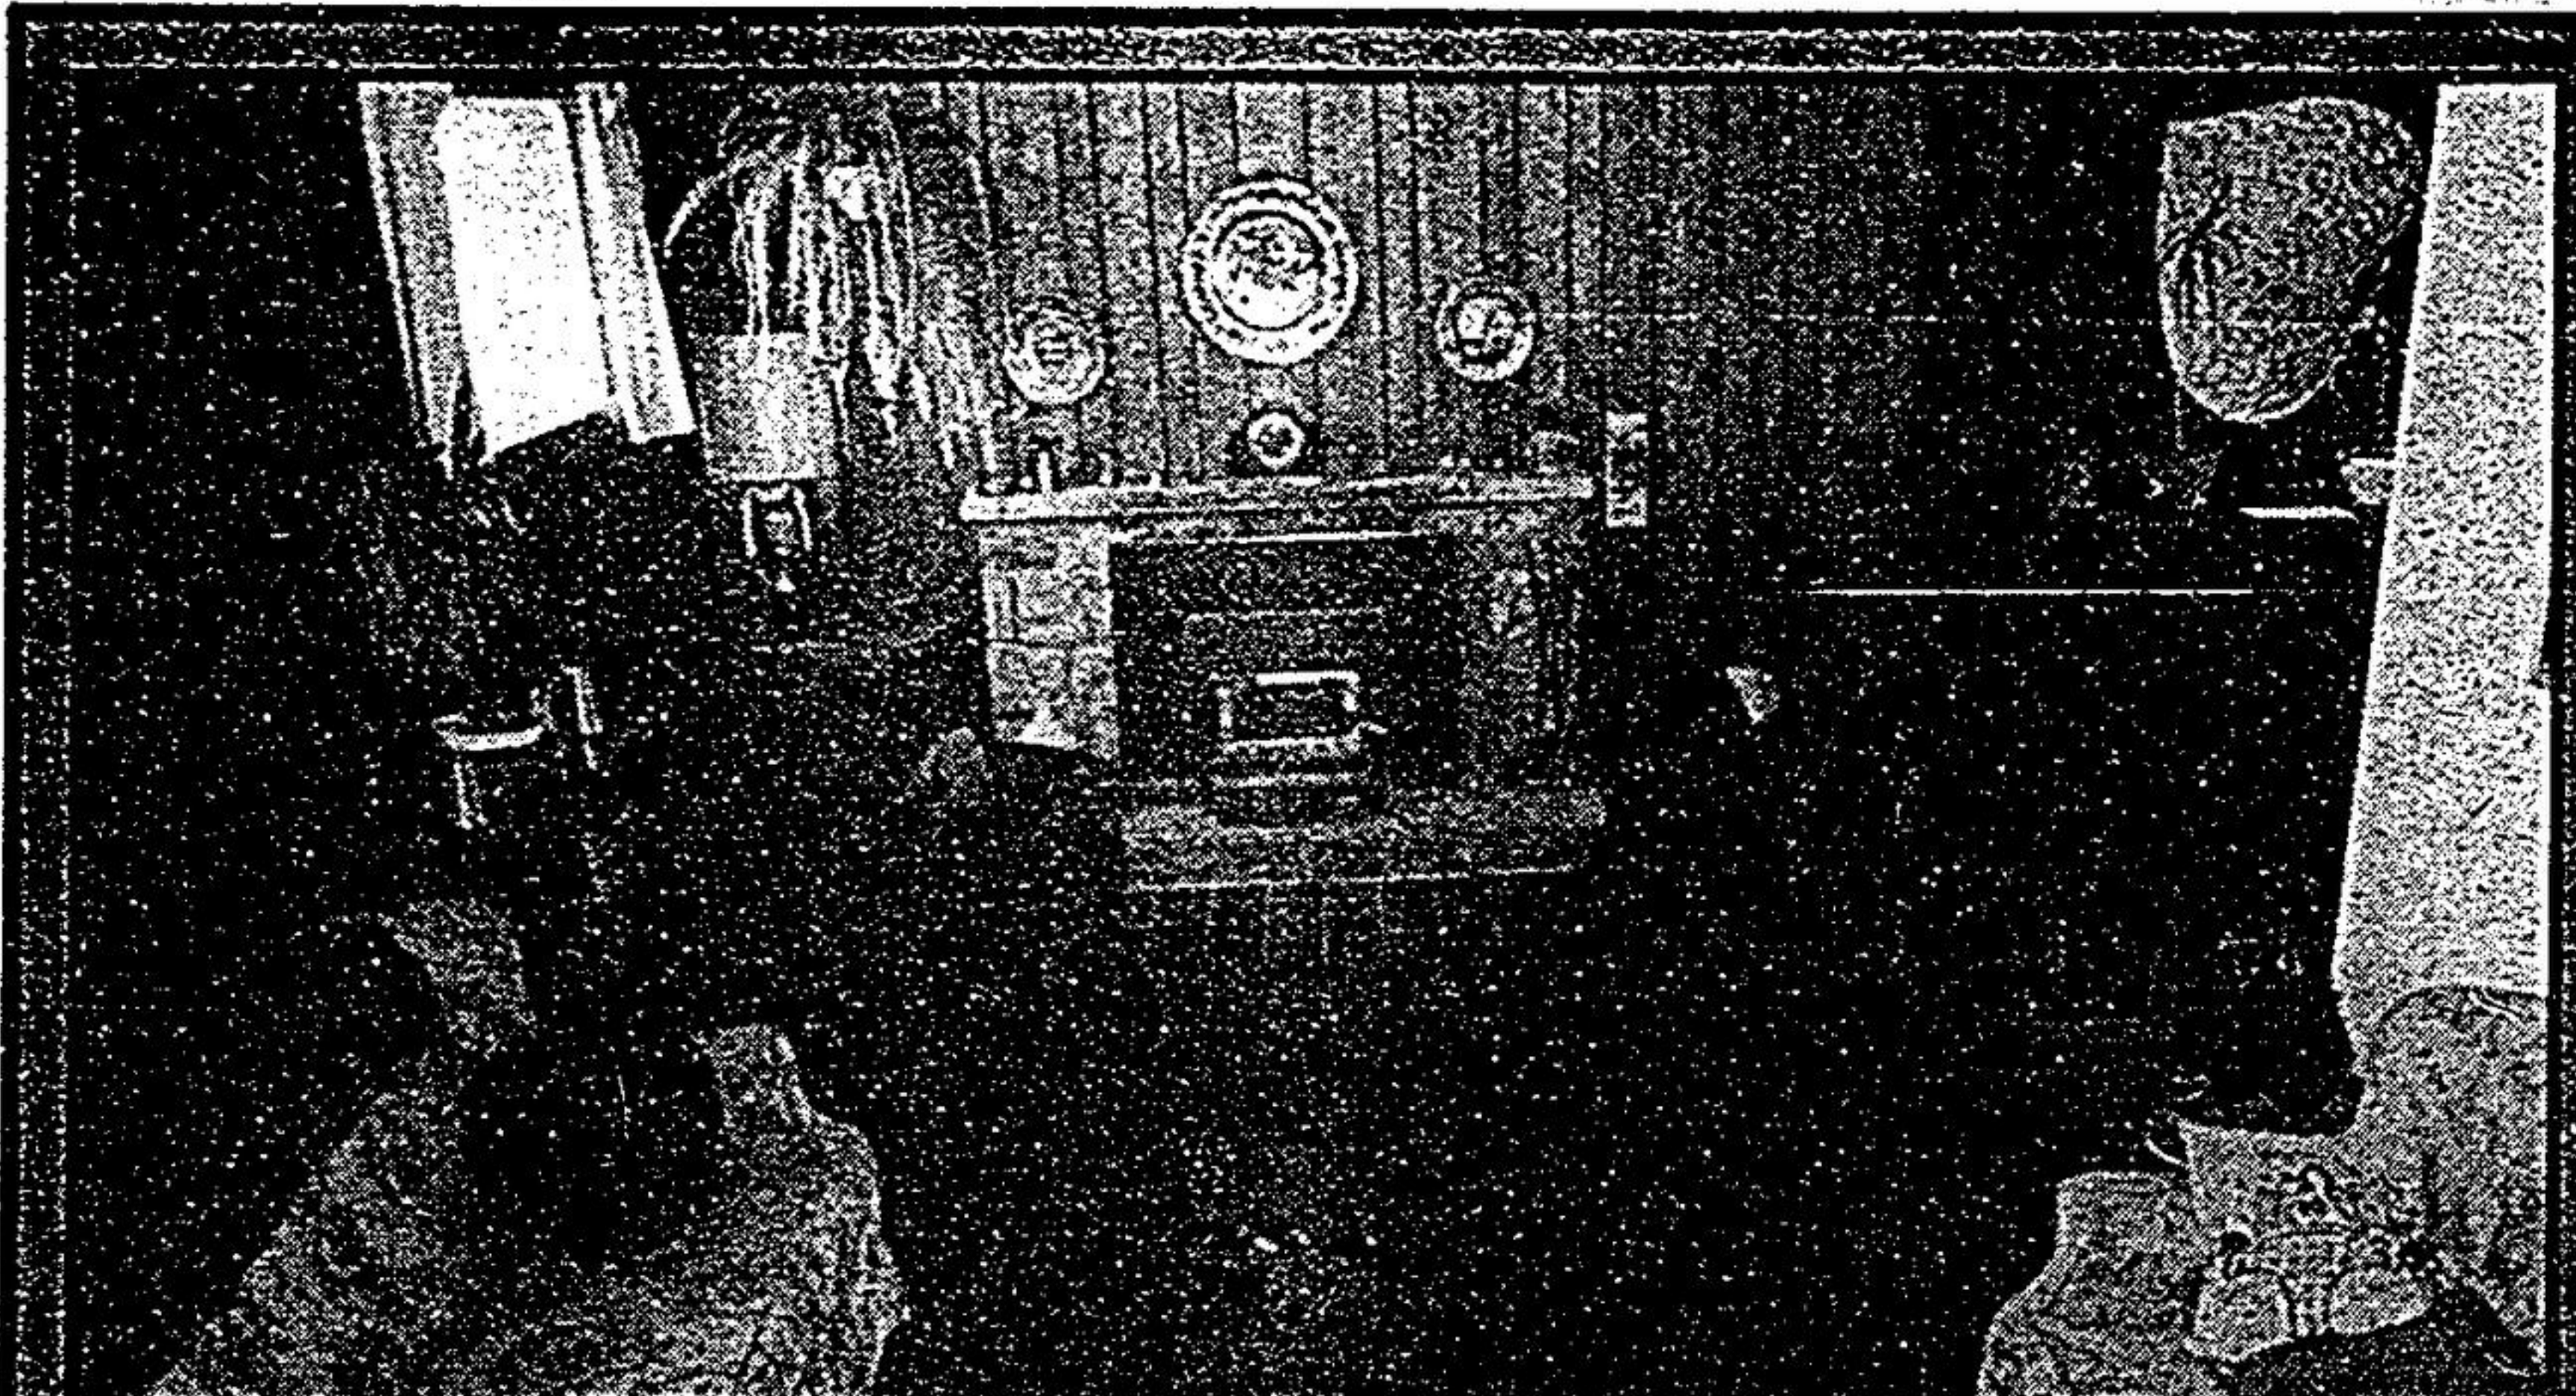

IN BRIEF...

UNIONVILLE WOMAN HONORED: Marilyn Forsythe of Unionville was honored as one of Mary Kay Cosmetics Ltd.'s top salespersons at the Seventh Annual Gala Seminar Awards Night recently held at the O'Keefe Centre. She attained a total of $15,000 or more in wholesale purchases from the company during the Seminar awards year (July 1, 1985 to June 30, 1986). This marks the second time she has been honored for her sales efforts by the company. Ms. Forsythe was presented with a 14-carat cluster ring with 15 diamonds.

SEARS INTRODUCES NEW CHRISTMAS CATALOGUE: Sears Canada Inc., the country's largest retailer and leader in catalogue merchandising, has unveiled its largest ever Christmas catalogue. The 1986 Christmas edition features close to 12,000 gift items, priced from $3.99 to $25,000. The new catalogue is being sold at all Sears outlets and selected bookstores for $2. The $2 is redeemable on your next $10 purchase from Sears. The Markham Sears store is located at Don Mills Rd. and Steeles Ave.

CHILDREN'S WEAR STORE OPENS: Marileena For Kids, a new children's wear store, has opened at 201 Main St. in Unionville. Owned and operated by Mari and Leena Kimsto, the store features a variety of kids' clothing from sportswear to dresses. Store hours are from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays; 11 a.m. to 8 p.m. on Fridays and from noon to 5 p.m. on Sundays. The store is closed on Mondays.

MARKHAM FIRM SIGNS MARKETING PACT: Sun Microsystems of Markham and Silva-Lisco of Menlo Park, California, have signed an agreement to jointly market their products through co-operative sales presentations, joint seminars, trade show promotions and product training programs. The agreement is valued at $7 million over the next year. Sun Microsystems, located at 7100 Woodbine Ave., has also signed an agreement with Innovative Computer Aided Technology to offer its computer-aided production and manufacturing system on Sun's technical workstations.
