The congregation is requested to bring lawn chairs and pot-luck desserts. Barbecued hamburgers and hot-dogs will be served. Sunday School Rally Day is also on this date, an important occasion for all ages.

'TRIP OF A LIFETIME'

Sixteen-year-old Jeff Carney, Maytree Avenue, Stouffville, recently returned from a once-in-a-lifetime trip that took him 633 miles from Whitehorse to Dawson City. The party of seven plus a guide followed the same route taken by prospectors during the Klondike Gold Rush of the 1860's. Jeff, a Grade 12 student at Stouffville Dist. Secondary School, was away 23 days. During the expedition, he hiked 33 miles; sailed 100 miles and paddled 500 miles. He described the native people as 'warm, friendly and honest'. Despite the fact the route was often treacherous, (one false step and all would have been over), Jeff returned home in good shape, (his mother said). While he'll not likely take the same trip, Jeff's hopeful of some day returning to The Yukon to again experience the wonders of the Frozen North.

IN GREEN GABLES

Bill Harper, son of Mabel Harper and the late Bruce Harper, is a resident at Green Gables Manor, Bloomington.
