

Service at Altona church

ALTONA — Once again, the interior of the 133-year-old Altona Mennonite Church will resound to gospel music and the spoken Word.

A Service of Thanksgiving and Remembrance will be held on location, Sunday, Oct. 5 at 3 p.m.

Rev. Daniel Nighswander will bring the message.

The historic structure, built in 1853, was regularly used for worship until 1974. The building has been well maintained both inside and out. Commemorative services were held in 1980, 1982 and 1984.

The worship brings together residents from a wide area. It not only assists in preserving the building but also serves as a means of celebrating a part of the history of the community.

Angered by call

MARKHAM — It doesn't pay to eavesdrop on a telephone conversation involving your wife.

Cosimò Cotronio, formerly of Markham, did just that, and he didn't like what he heard.

The 31-year-old accused told Provincial Judge David Scott in Newmarket Court, he taped a conversation between his wife and another man and became angry.

According to evidence, he punched and kicked her, then threw her clothing and other items about the house.

The woman suffered cuts to her head, nose and face as well as body bruises.

"I'm not persuaded you should go to jail," Judge Scott told the man, "but the sentence must reflect that this court does not approve of a husband hitting his wife."

Cotronio was fined $200 or 20 days. He was also placed on a one-year term of probation and told to stay away from his now-separated spouse except in the presence of a lawyer.

Respected couple mark milestone

Saturday afternoon was an exciting occasion for Harry and Earla Brammer of Cedar Valley, Whitchurch-Stouffville—the celebration of their 50th wedding anniversary. An 'Open House' was enjoyed at the Vandorf Community Hall. Mr and Mrs Brammer were married Sept. 5, 1936 and have lived at Cedar Valley since 1949. They have one daughter Laurine, (Mrs Robert Maver) of Havelock and four grandsons, Victor, Duane, Bentley and Sean. The honored couple were the recipients of many congratulatory messages including framed plaques from Governor-General Jeanne Sauve, Prime Minister Brian Mulroney, Premier David Peterson, M.P. Sinclair Stevens and the Town of Whitchurch-Stouffville.
