

Learning group back in business

After a summer hiatus the York Region Association for Children & Adults with Learning Disabilities is resuming its popular bi-monthly meetings.

These get-togethers are open to everyone who would like to know more about learning disabilities, how they affect an individual's school education, social environment, employment etc. and how to deal with problems stemming from learning disabilities.

When you attend these meetings you'll hear prominent guest speakers, be involved in question-and-answer sessions, and enjoy the camaraderie of other individuals who share your problems and interests.

For information on meetings, library service, social adolescent group, parent support group in Newmarket and Aurora, Learning Disabled Adult group and other services please call 884-7933, 722-5560, 895-8233, or 727-8731.

Meetings are held every other month from September through

May on the 4th Tuesday of the month at: Crosby Heights School, 305 Crosby Avenue in Richmond Hill (north of Major MacKenzie, west of Bayview Ave., and east of Newkirk Rd.) at 8 p.m. Office number 884-7933.

This month's meeting, slated for Tuesday, September 23, is our first meeting for this year. This is the annual general meeting with guest speaker Louise Hourston, teacher with the North York Board of Education. Her topic will be Social Skills.

Celebrating 50 years

Fran and Noel Lawrence of Markham are celebrating their 50th anniversary today with a small family party at the home of their daughter, Judy Bennett of Sutton. The couple have lived at their home on Church St. since their wedding September 12, 1936. Mr. Lawrence worked at Hamilton's Garage on Main St. (now the Weddingcake House) for many years. Mrs. Lawrence worked at Markham District High School in the cafeteria.

Fraud charges

A Markham man has been charged with fraud over $1,000 following an investigation by York Regional Police.

Police discovered that Wellington Way Rental was defrauded of $14,640 on July 17.
