New ambulance an emergency ward on wheels

Ambulance attendants Paul Blais and Brian Donohue (in driver's seat) admire a new $70,000 Ministry of Health emergency vehicle stationed at Stouffville's fire hall. The 1986 Dodge Highrise is described by Mr. Donohue as "state of the art" and comes complete with such features as a strobe lighting bar to aid visibility. The ambulance made its first major call - to the scene of a fatal two-car collision east of Coppins Corners - soon after delivery Sept. 5. It replaces a five-year-old model.

Baptist breakfast

By MARJORIE WOODLAND
FOURTH LINE — A breakfast will be served at 9 a.m. next Sunday morning at Goodwood Baptist Church.

This will be followed by the screening of a film with an evangelistic approach, No Room for Kevin, during the Sunday School hour. It'll be the regular Rally Day service as the Sunday School gets in gear for the beginning of a new term.

Garth Nicholson was accorded a friendly farewell following Sunday's morning worship service. Mr. Nicholson is from New Brunswick and, although he has only been in the Goodwood area for a year, has made many friends in the district. Employed at Otto Richter's herb business and later at White Rose nursery, he is leaving to take a government position in his native province.

Steven May is now a student at Lakehead University in Thunder Bay. His parents, Ron and Jean, saw him settled in on campus last week. He's enrolled in an outdoor science course.

Alger May is busy remodelling a house on his Goodwood lot. It was recently moved from Markham and will be enlarged and bricked before ready for occupancy.

Some Goodwood senior citizens are enjoying a color tour to northern Ontario. A highlight will be a day train trip up the Agawa Canyon.

Here's a verse entitled Wonderment:

If radio's slim fingers can pluck a melody from the night and toss it over a continent or sea; if the petalled white notes of a violin can be blown across a mountain or a city's din; if songs like crimson roses are culled from thin blue air, why should mortals wonder if God hears prayers!
