Gourmet Corner

This week Gourmet Corner features Papiotte of Veal with Lemon, Pepper, Ginger and Lime, another international recipe from Steve Treadwell, chef at Melba's Restaurant in Markham.

Ingredients

3 small slices provimi or choice veal (pounded thinly)
Finely chopped celery and ginger root
Lemon or regular thyme and lemon pepper
Lime juice and zest
White wine

Lightly butter a piece of waxed paper approximately 7 by 10 inches and egg wash around the outside. Lay the first piece of veal on top of the paper and season with lemon pepper.

Mix together celery, ginger, thyme and lime, then spoon a little of the mixture over the veal before adding the second and third slices and repeating the procedure.

Sprinkle a little white wine over the veal and add a knob of butter. Enclose the parcel creating a half moon shape. Cook in a 450-degree oven on a lightly greased tray for approximately 10 minutes.

Cut open the top and spoon in one or two tablespoons of natural yogurt. Garnish with sprigs of fresh dill and possibly a few baby shrimp. Serve immediately. Makes one serving.
