

25th year is special

York Symphony Orchestra opens its 25th year with special concerts and featured artists. Mendelssohn lovers will enjoy the first event, an evening at Markham Theatre Friday Oct. 17 and at Aurora High School Saturday night.

Krista Bucklan, winner of 1986 Kiwanis Music Festival will perform on the violin.

The evening, presented by York Symphony Orchestra is sponsored by Schickedanz Bros. Limited and will include the Hebrides Overture by Mendelssohn and Sibelius' Symphony number 2.

Tickets may be reserved by calling 479-0201. They're available at Garden Party Flower Market in Markham.

Miss Footloose '86

Carol Warner, 24, is Miss Footloose '86. The contest, held Wednesday at Footloose (on Hwy. 7 in Markham) raised $900 for The Toronto Hospital for Sick Children. The amount was 20 per cent of the evening's take. (Ms. Warner's eyes are hazel and her hobby is karate.)

Anne returns

Actors Megan Follows (left) and Jonathon Crombie discuss a scene during filming of Anne of Green Gables: Part 2, scheduled to air on CBC TV next season. The cast and production crew returned to Bruce's Mill Conservation Area this week to bring more of Lucy Maud Montgomery's classic story to the small screen. The original episode, parts of which were shot at the Whitchurch-Stouffville park, won a 1986 American Emmy Award as best children's program.
