

DID YOU MISS US LAST WEDNESDAY?

If you did, you missed. . .

. . . news from Greg Coates about why five delegations of concerned parents stormed board offices. . . how hunters took the news about the town's proposal to ban the sport within its limits. . . a bus stop called a "death trap". . . how francophones got representation on York Region Separate School Board. . . a tribute to a long-serving Fire Chief. . . feature attractions at Markham Fair such as the quarterhorse races finishing today. . . sports editor Frank King's report on Markham Marauders' encounter with Newmarket and sweet revenge in slow-pitch playoffs.

Plus. . . a regular 12-page business/real estate section alerting seniors to special savings. . . a photographic profile of Markham's Buns Master Bakery. . . and current rates and listings on our booming housing market.

Economist & Sun
640-2100

SEE YOU WEDNESDAY

The Tribune
294-2200