Hermack wins Unionville title

Who says new sports teams always have to pay a few year's dues?

Members of the Hermack Insurance squad in the Unionville Men's Slowpitch League are a good example of achieving quick success.

They went out last weekend and captured the league title in their first year of operation. That's the only thing that could have topped their first-place finish (with only one loss) in the regular season.

Hermack went undefeated in the playoffs, beating a tough Village Interiors team 17-15 in an eight-inning championship battle.

Homeruns by Mike Redvers, Bryan Black and Graham Ballentine led the offensive barrage. Left fielder Robbie West's bases-loaded triple didn't hurt, either.

Brian Smith and Rich Placins paced the Village attack with a round-tripper each. The club reached the finals with a two-game victory over Dynes Insurance.

Also on the losing team were Jim Burkholder, Doug Cronin, Reg Crozier, Ron Faragher, Bill Harding, Wayne Jackson, Jim Jones, John Oliver, Al Saley, Ron Scott, Don Turner and Lee Whaelan.

Rounding out the victorious Hermack roster were Bernie Anderson, Dave Colwill, Alan Escoffery, Fred Hansen, Fred Hermack, Jim Hill, Hubert Hicks, Nick Markovski, Bill Melin, Jimmy Tucker and Lou Barbesin.

McKenzie Recs took the consolation final with a 24-6 win over the Insurers. Steve Caldwell had two hits and Peter Parry five.

A 20-4 win over P.A. Connell Real Estate put the club into the final. The Insurers knocked off B&M Motors to gain their spot.

This year the 'Crying Towel' division was created for the bottom eight league finishers to gain a little self-respect.

Calathumpians finished on top, defeating the Meat Shoppe 14-7 on Jim Carson's grand slam.

Big winner

Stouffville stable takes 3 ribbons

Stouffville's Spindrift Stables was the big winner at the recent Canadian Hunter/Breeder show held at Zweibrucken Horse Farm on McCowan Road.

Spindrift horses took three ribbons — Hi Baby fourth in the Yeldmere division, Black Tower third in the Broodmere section and Against All Odds third in the Weaning Filly category.

Markham's Susan Collins was third in the Yeldmere competition with March Winds. Goodwood's Janie Mackin took fifth in Yeldmere with Summer Sensation.

Stouffville's Don Hargrove collected three ribbons — a sixth on Challenger in the two-year-old gelding division, fifth on Vital Signs in the Model Hunter category, and fourth on Risky Business in the three-year-old gelding section.

Linda Downs and Diane Savage of Stouffville were second in the Model Hunter competition on Echo's Secret.

Another big winner was the host farm. Zweibrucken horse Farina had thirds in the Hunter Under Saddle and Over Fences. Kathy's Commander was fifth in Dean Myer's Hunter Stake.

Sharon Wilston won the Hunter Over Fences on Spellbinder. About 160 competitors took part in the event.

Bull riding crown for Pefferlaw man

A part-time employee of Uxbridge's Pleasure Valley park has captured his second consecutive Ontario bull riding crown.

Dave Doner, 23, of Pefferlaw retained his championship at an Ontario Rodeo Series event held Sept. 26-28 at Newmarket Arena Complex.

The Pefferlaw resident serves as a trail riding guide at the park, located on Brock Rd. north of Claremont.

Unionville wins pair

Unionville's Minor Atom hockey Jets are of to fast start under the direction of returning coach Syl Apps.

In two games to date the club has defeated Markham 5-3 and the MTHL's York Toros 1-0. John Sylvester led the way against Markham with a goal and three assists.

Rusty Harding counted two goals and an assist, while Kevin Beckberger and Chris Faragher picked up single assists.

In the York win Syl Apps (from Kevin Mason) did the scoring. Paul Davies and Steve Ordanis shared the shutout honors.
