Thomson Court News

10th anniversary memories linger

By ADA ALLEN

The excitement of that wonderful Anniversary Party is over but will always remain in our hearts, especially the guest speaker Rev. Donald Parr formerly of St. Andrew's United Church who eloquently explained how it all happened "in the beginning" 10 years ago.

Some of us have enjoyed residence in Thomson Court from day one opening — yes, alas we are 10 years old — but we do take care of ourselves because there is incentive.

The memories are like fragile silken threads that in later years we spin into golden yarns to share with our loves ones.

Health is a precious gift that can be shared with others through fine medical care, group support, research and all this is happening. Planned activity is what keeps us on the move and happy.

Thomson Court with it's great foresight, terrific management is responsible; to some degree also the Town of Markham which extends so many privileges to seniors.

SENIORS SEMINAR

Face The Future With Confidence is a senior seminar to be held Wednesday, Oct. 29 from 1:30-3:30 p.m. at Markham Theatre.

As part of the Progressive Conservative task force on care for the elderly with Don Cousens' Seniors Advisory Council, the seminar is being presented to help seniors now and in the future.

Rev. Donald Parr, former pastor of St. Andrew's United Church and moving force behind Thomson Court apartments, was guest speaker at the recent 10th Anniversary celebrations.

There will be several knowledgeable speakers to impart information on the availability of Home Support, Home Care, Meal on Wheels, the Victorian Order of Nurses, therapy and many other services through a doctor's prescription.

Housing will be an issue and Finance and Legal Work discussed. I could not begin to list all the options and information which is of great importance to seniors and their families.

There is limited seating; tickets are available at no cost. Refreshments. Best idea is just to be there.
