

Markham Fair '86

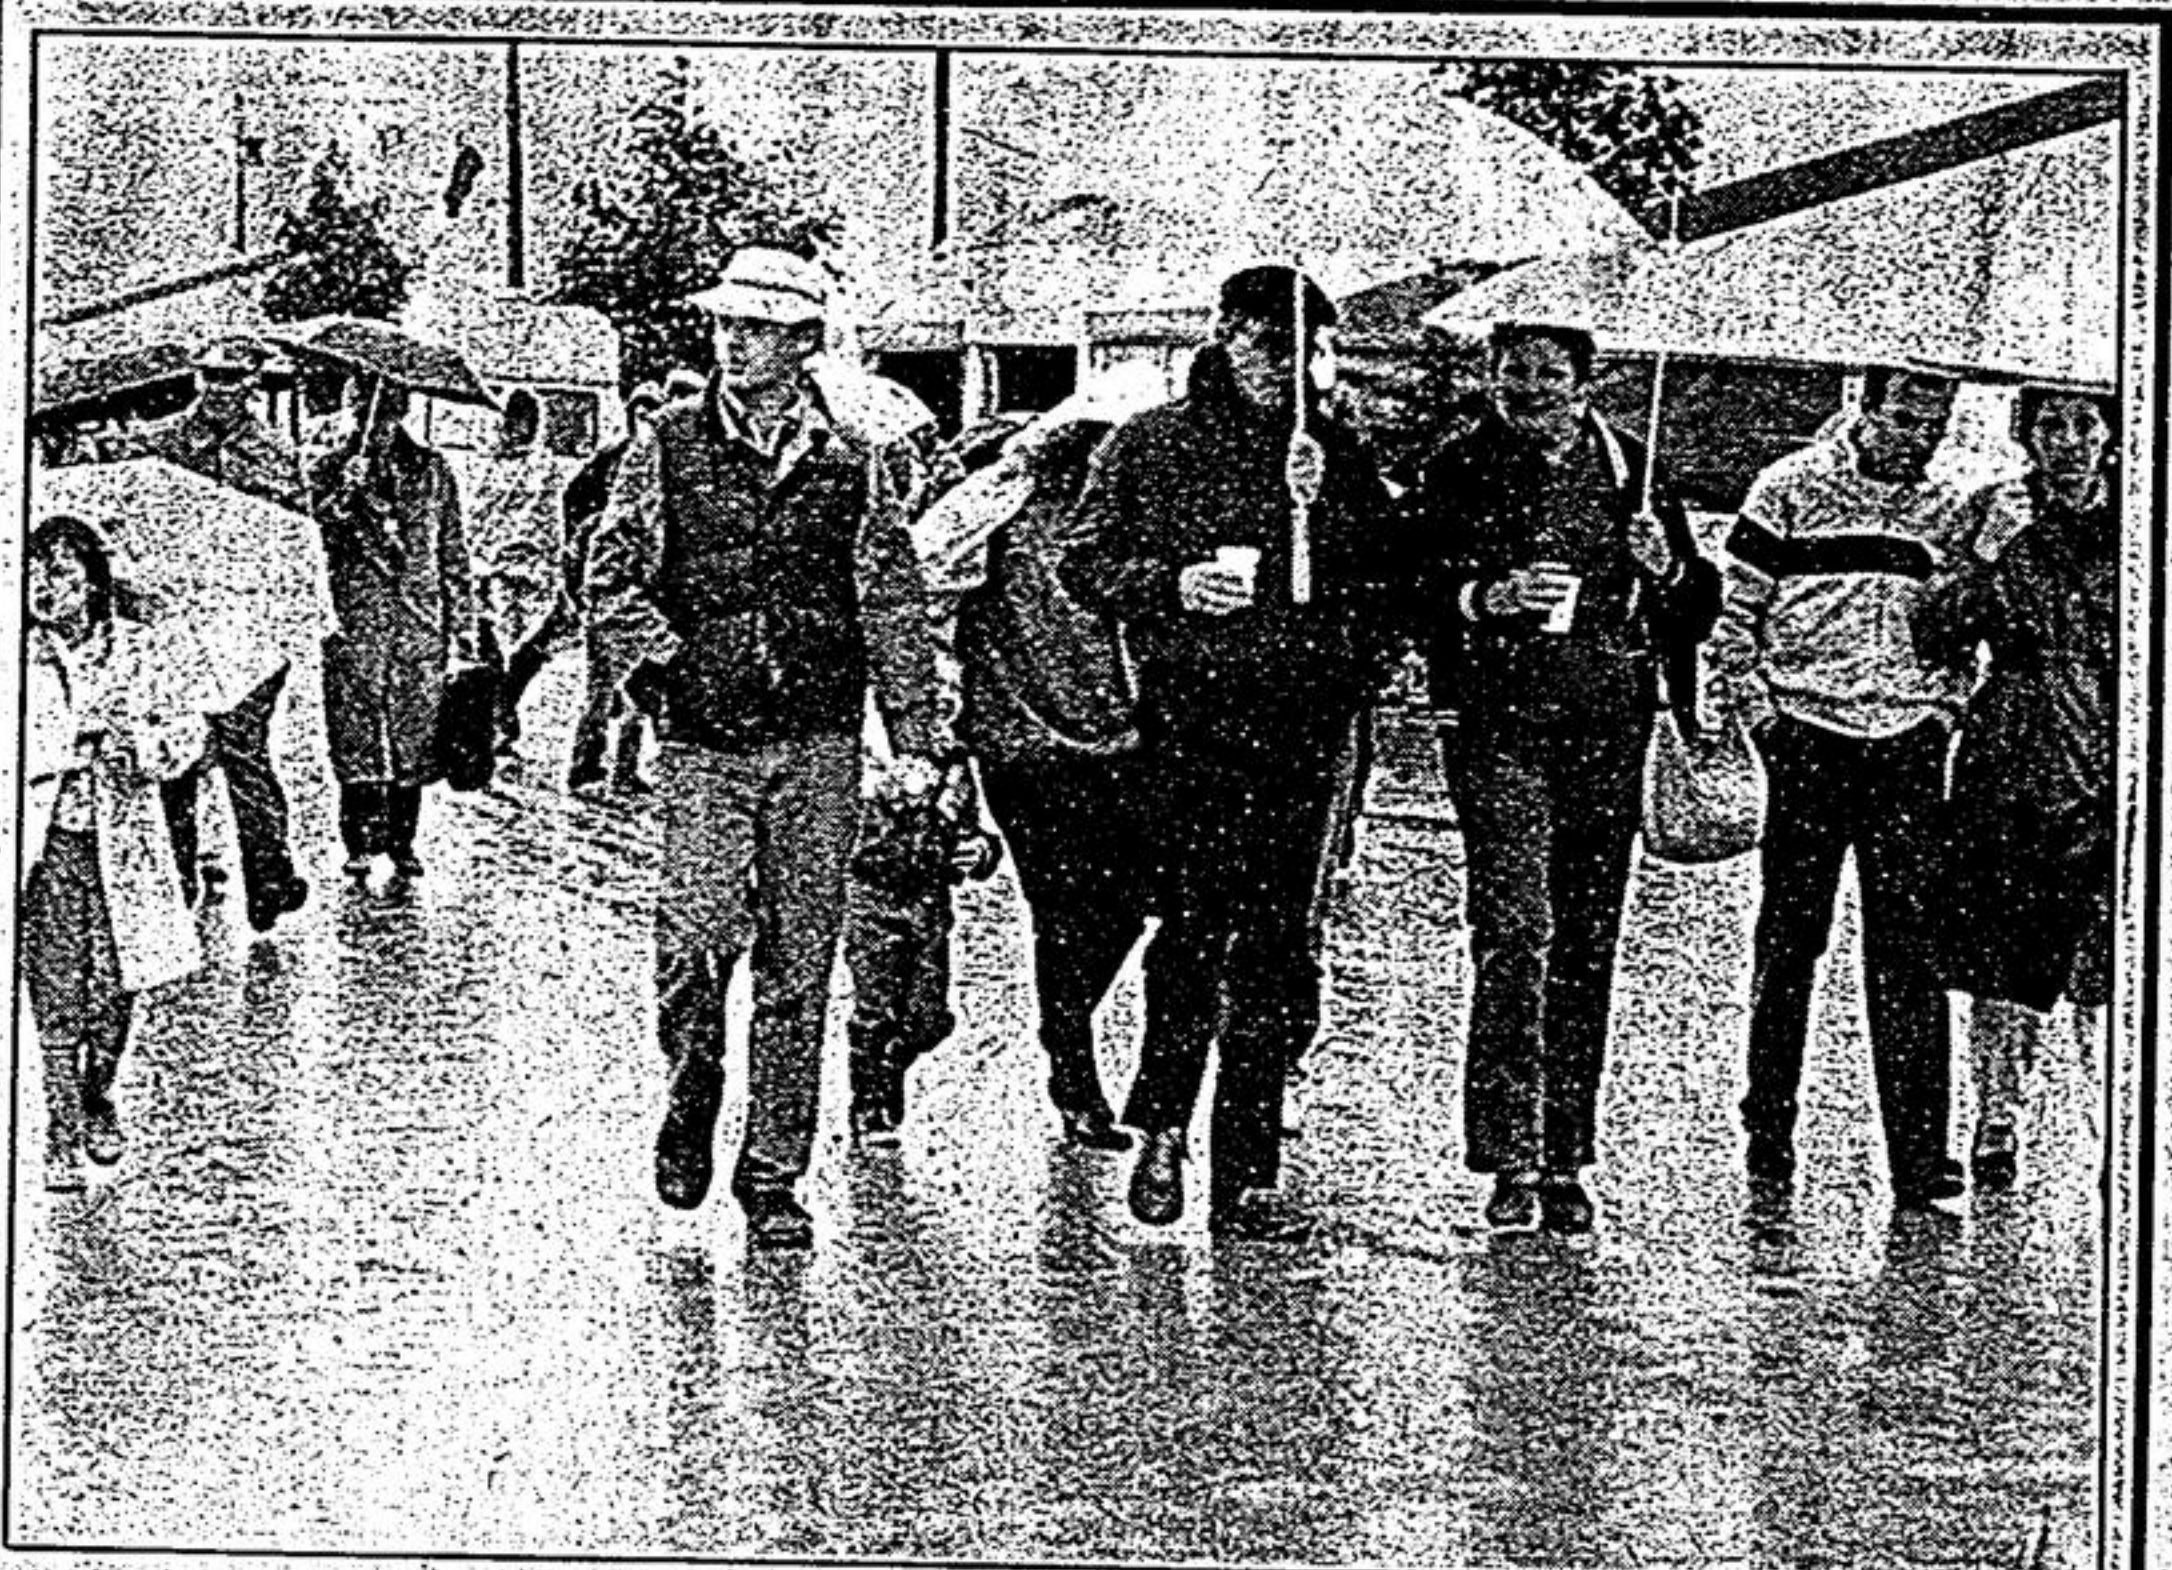

Cake-baking celebrity

Jerry Fisher, principal at Roy H. Crosby Public School in Markham, shows off his prize-winning creation following the Celebrity Cake Decorating Contest on Saturday. With him is his assistant Ruth Andrews. Celebrities are teamed with experienced cake decorators although the novices must do the actual decorating.

— Jim Thomas

Water water everywhere

Rain made things uncomfortable for many people attending Markham Fair over the weekend. Umbrellas were the order of the day as were warm, water-proof boots and coats. At right, a volunteer helps dig a channel so excess water can drain away. Despite the weather, large crowds attended the Fair — especially on Sunday when the skies finally cleared.

— Bill Lanning

Graders had their work cut for them preparing the track at Markham Fair for standardbred and quarterhorse racing on Saturday.

— Bill Lanning

Del Millar and his son Jeff, 13, won the Chip Off The Old Block contest at Markham Fair. Father and son live on Garnish Green in Markham.

— Jim Thomas

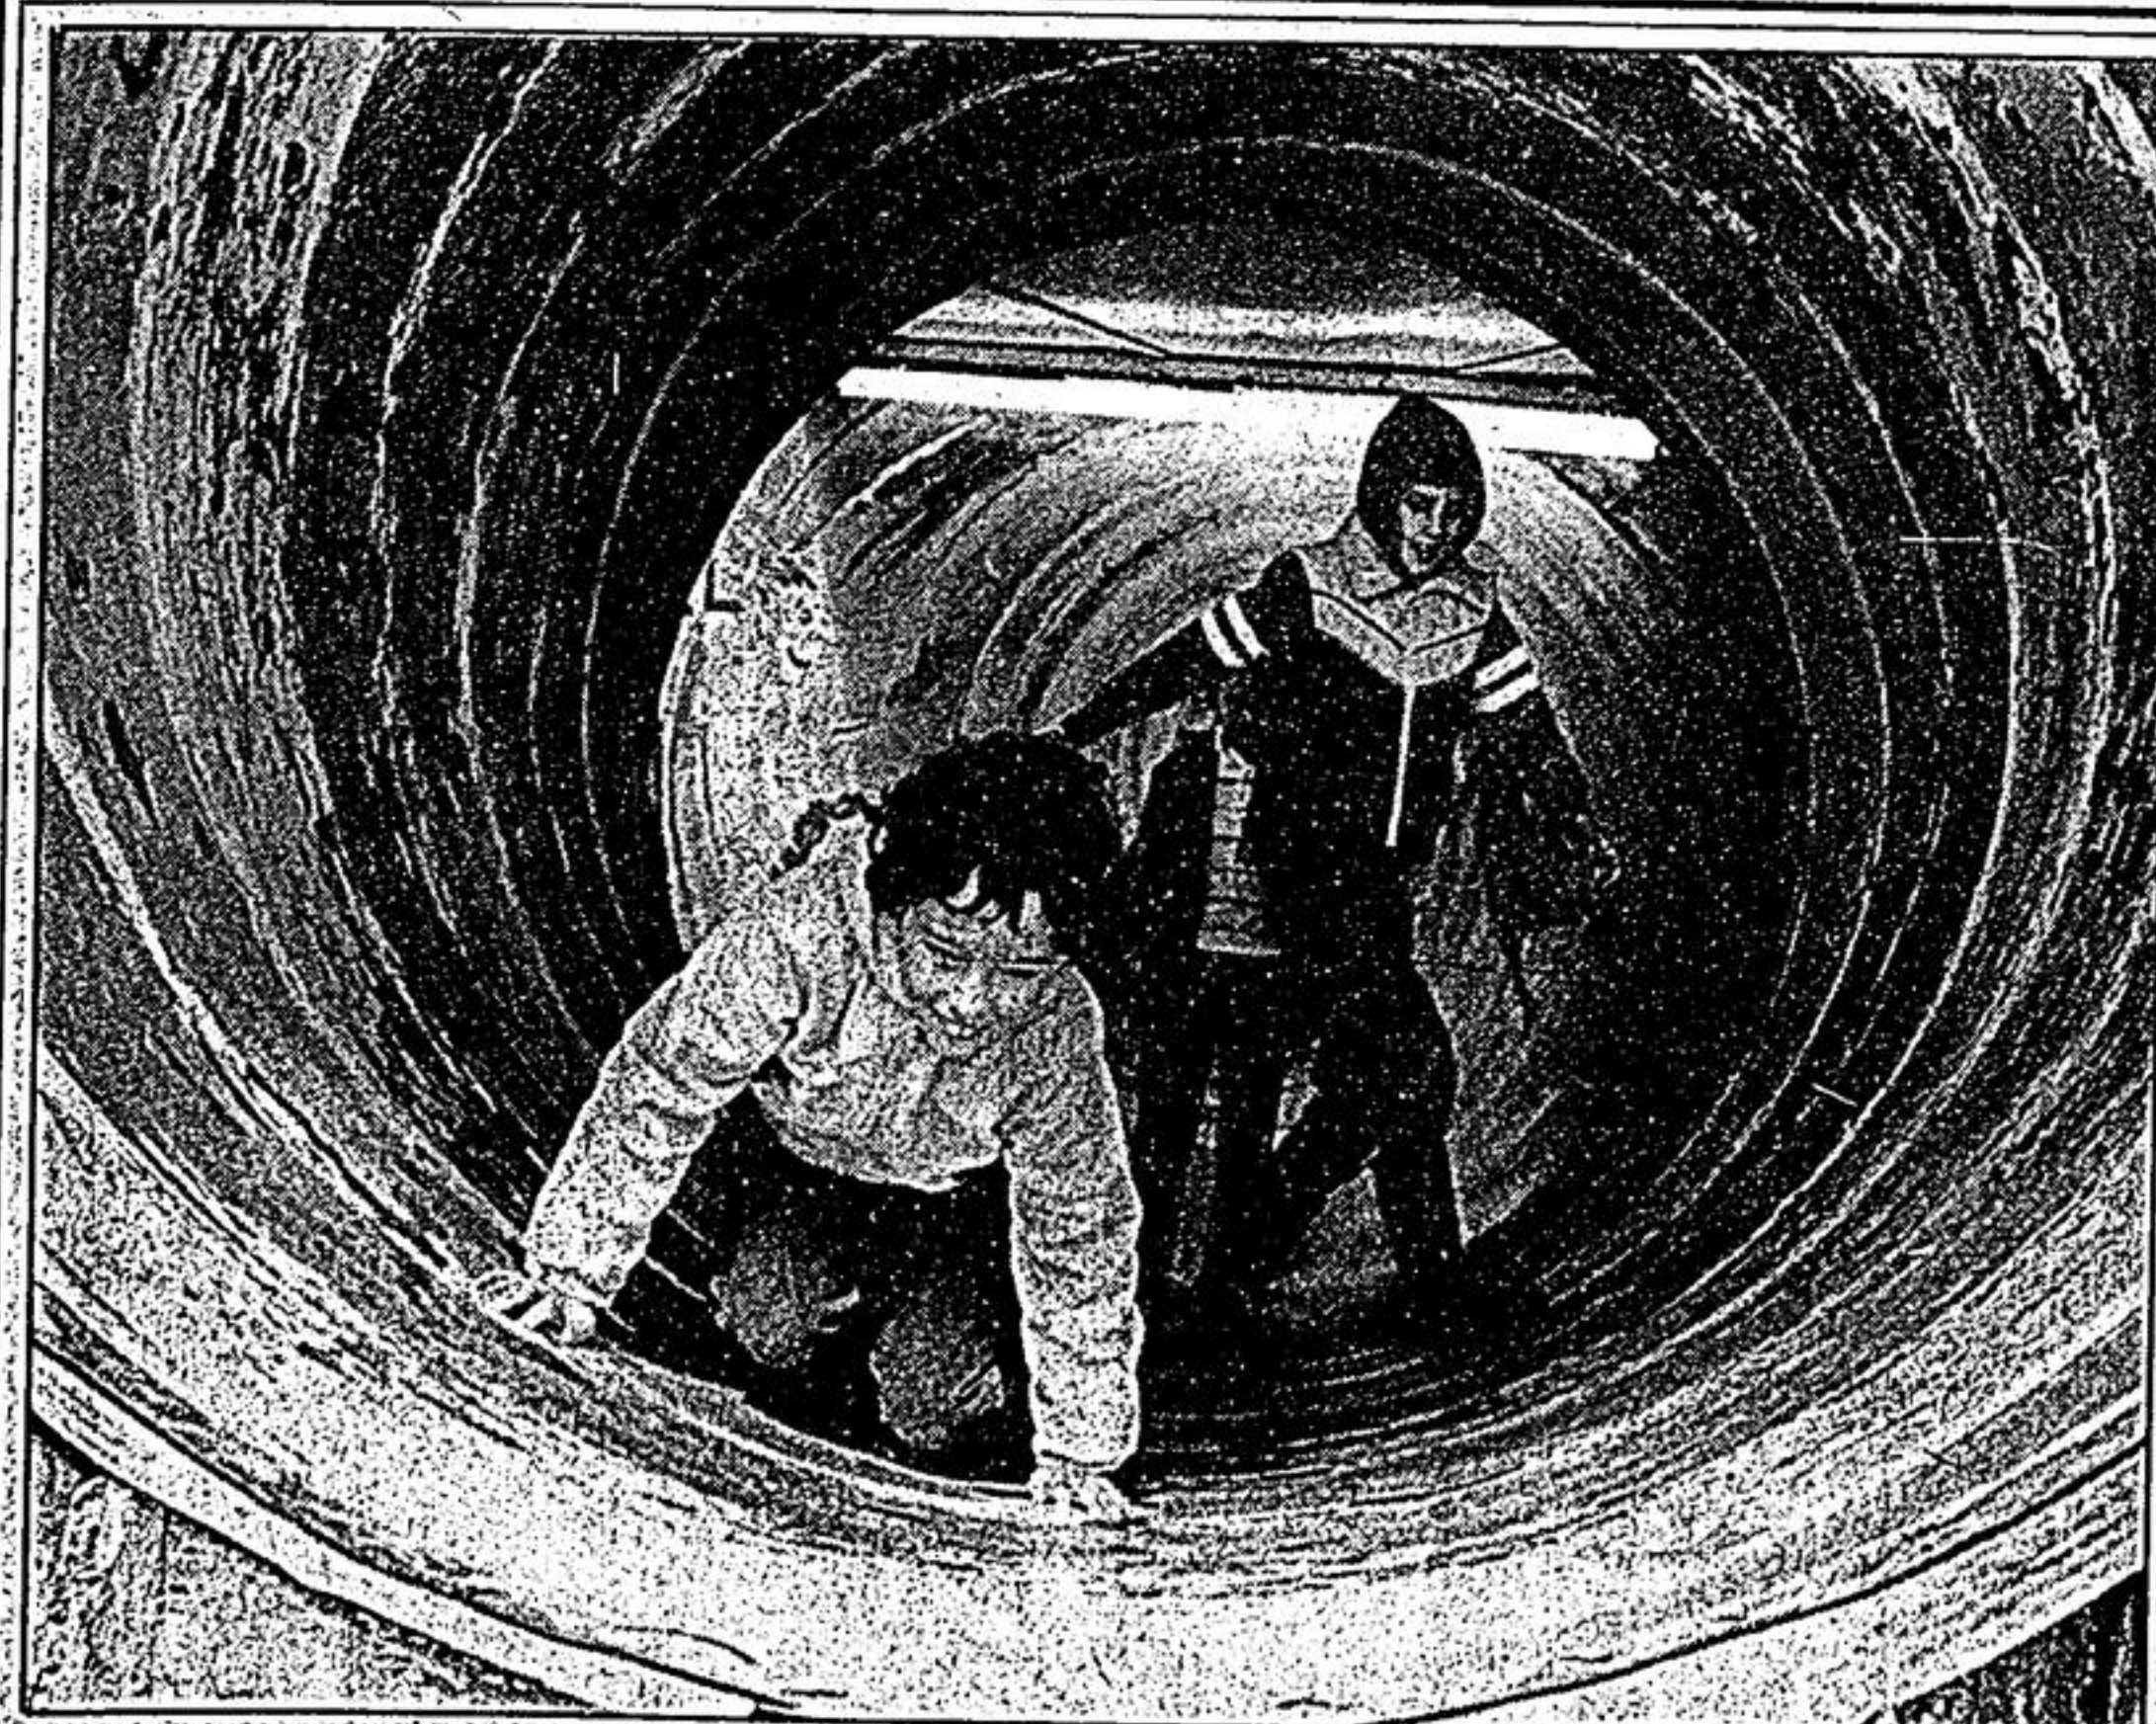

Linda Chou, 14, of MacPhail Court in Unionville received the Sutherland Special prize for best in show in the school children's section from Markham Fair President Mary Cosburn.

— Jim Thomas

Markham's Marie Beckett, 1985 Fair Queen, won the reserve grand championship in the Guernsey 4-H Inter-club competition.

The midway is a favorite attraction for young and old. Above, Sarah Denton and her brother Michael, of Unionville, attempt to leave the haunted house through a rotating barrel. At right, Kristy Grant enjoys the Pirate Ship ride.

— Bill Lanning

