Paper route earned carrier a bike

Eleven-year-old Sean Coney of Goodwood is an important link in the chain of carriers employed by The Tribune. Sean covers a route that includes not only his own street but a portion of Hwy. 47 and Conc. 3. He's the son of Tony and Cynthia Coney, Tindall Lane. He has a sister, Kelly, eight. Sean, a Grade 6 student at Goodwood Public School, has been delivering Tribunes almost a year. He's saved up enough money to buy a new bicycle and hopes next year to graduate up to a dirt bike. He has his own bank account. On wet Wednesdays, (and we've had plenty of those), Sean's mother and dad give him a hand, otherwise, he does it alone with friend Chris Spearen sometimes going along for company. Sean loves hockey. He plays both centre and left wing in the Atom division at Uxbridge. Asked what subject he enjoys most in Grade 6, Sean replied enthusiastically, "Gym".
