

Late Helen Little Sorrily missed

CEDAR GROVE — The passing of Mrs Archie Little, Sept. 26, 1986, has been keenly felt in the Cedar Grove area and beyond.

Mrs Little, the former Helen Freeman, was a life-long resident of the community.

Born on the family farm, Steeles Avenue, R.R. 1, Markham, she was the daughter of the late George M. and Nellie Freeman. As a young girl, she attended Box Grove Public School and later Markham High School and Toronto Teachers' College.

After obtaining her teacher's certificate, she returned to the neighborhood and taught for a period of eight years at Cedar Grove Public School. She was highly respected by parents and pupils alike.

Mrs Little's life touched all areas of the community. She was an active member in the congregation of Zion United Church, assisting in the Mission Band, the Women's Missionary Society and the U.C.W. She taught Sunday School many years.

She was a member in the ladies' section of the Unionville Jr. Farmers. Later, she assisted in the work of the Markham Historical Society and was a strong supporter of her husband in the work of the Jersey Club.

Mr and Mrs Little were married Sept. 21, 1935 and celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary just over one year ago.

Mrs Little suffered a stroke at home and passed away Sept. 26 in St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto.

She was extremely close to her family including Barry and Aileen; Robert and Carol; Carolyn and Don (Hoshe); grandchildren Douglas, David and Elaine; Kim, Kelly and Chris; Todd and Darren and great-granddaughter Heather.

Mrs Little has one sister, Ann Rowbotham of Cornwall.

Rev. Michael Herman of Zion United Church, Cedar Grove, conducted the service, Sept. 29, from the Dixon-Garland Funeral Home, Markham, with interment St. Andrew's Cemetery, Markham. Pall-bearers were—Murray Sewell, Lorne Dimma, Murray Reesor, Elliott Harrington, Richard Dare and Grant Burkholder.

Gormley Church Enact slave day

By EVELYN MILSTED
GORMLEY — The young people of the Gormley Missionary Church are holding a Slave Day this Saturday. Residents with jobs to do and requiring people to do them, are asked to call 887-5846.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Heise and Mr. and Mrs. John Hall enjoyed several days with Mr. Hall's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. David Denton of Cochrane.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Vanderbent; Mr. and Mrs. John Pugh; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hogg and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Hogg spent the weekend at Camp Kahquah near Magnetewan.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wright enjoyed Thanksgiving dinner Sunday with a brother-in-law and sister; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McCartney at their cottage near Wiarton.

Martha Wideman of Stouffville; Luella Klinck of London and Norma Steckley of Richmond Hill spent several days with relatives and friends in Pennsylvania.

Bishop Charles B. Byers of Charlesburg, Pennsylvania, will be the guest speaker at the 11 a.m. service this Sunday, (Oct. 17), at Heise Hill Church. Bishop Byers is the speaker on the radio program Gospel Tide Hour heard on CKAN Radio, Newmarket, every Sunday at 7:30 p.m.

The Young Adult Group of the Missionary Church will gather for supper, Saturday night, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Boadway.

The M.M.I dinner will be held at Guelph on Friday evening.

Tribune reader in Saudi-Arabia appreciates Stouffville news

Recently, The Tribune received a subscription renewal from Norene Morrison, formerly of Ballantrae and now residing in Al Yamama Village, Riyadh, Saudi-Arabia.

While deliveries of the newspaper aren't as regular as Mrs. Morrison would like, (they sometimes come in bundles of five), she and her husband enjoy receiving each copy and often pass them on to a family that used to live in Markham.

Writes Mrs Morrison: "We receive very little Canadian television news here and nothing from the Stouffville area. We are enjoying some wonderful experiences in the Middle East. Our sons visited with us during the summer but they have since returned to Canada in order to attend school. We've been to two Arab homes for meals and one of our sons was introduced to a sheik. Riyadh is an interesting city. Parts of it are ultra-modern with some shopping malls that would put Markville to shame."

The letterhead used by Mrs Morrison is very interesting. Camels are obviously a popular form of transportation there. Six photos, all of camels, are printed on each page. The letter was mailed Sept. 27 and arrived in Stouffville Oct. 9.
