Holiday visitor

By MARJORIE WOODLAND
FOURTH LINE — Lorraine Harmon spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Bunker, at Kushog Lake over the holiday. Verna Bunker is wearing a cast to repair an ankle injury.

Congratulations to Wayne and Kim Turner on the safe arrival of their daughter, Lisa Danielle weighed in at seven lbs., 11 oz. on Wednesday, Oct. 8 at Uxbridge Cottage Hospital.

Work has begun on a new street in Goodwood. It'll serve as the entrance to a new subdivision slated for the McGuckin property, north of Hwy. 47 opposite the Baptist Church.

I would like to share this 'grace for Thanksgiving day. It may be too late for the day, but is it ever too early or too late to give thanks for our many blessings?

Dear God, wherever we may be, on this Thanksgiving day, Gathered with loved ones, in our homes, or many miles away, We bow our heads remembering those who shared Thanksgiving past.

Those who have walked with us awhile, whose love will always last. And for a tiny pilgrim band, whose trials we can't forget. Help us to sift the good and the bad; the hatred and the strife. Grant us the wisdom and the strength, to lead a useful life.

—Alice Roberts

Bingo lives in hamlet

By ELSIE BOLAND

GOODWOOD — Uxbridge's Optimist Club has announced it will take over operation of regular bingo nights. The Lions ran these popular fund-raising games until the Goodwood chapter recently disbanded. More details about bingo times and dates will be available in the near future.

The congregation at Goodwood United Church will celebrate its anniversary with a turkey dinner on Thursday, Nov. 6. A special service will be held on Sunday, Nov. 9.

The Women's Institute, UCW, Goodwood Senior Citizens Club and the Goodwood Christian Women's Club are among the many community groups who enjoyed successful gatherings in recent days.

Euclre also attracted a full house to the community centre last Wednesday.

Sunday was Thanksgiving and communion day on the local church scene.
