

Young artists win honors

Select top posters

STOUFFVILLE — Two Stouffville schools, Orchard Park and Summitview, participated in a recent Poster Contest sponsored by The Block Parent Association.

The competition marked the beginning of Block Parent Week, Oct. 20-26.

The students were asked to create posters depicting ways The Block Parent program helps them.

Winners were... Sonya Diesberger, Chad Dickinson, Heather Loveday and Sandy Procunier. The judge was Stouffville artist Jim Bessey.

Said Mr. Bessey: "They were all so good, I wish I could have given everyone a prize."

Two of the winners each received a $10 gift certificate from John Lord's Books, Stouffville and the two others each received $10 gift certificates courtesy Stedman's of Stouffville.
