Truck thieves wanted

By INSPECTOR BARRY T. DELANEY

Toronto and Regional Crime Stoppers are seeking the assistance of the public in an effort to apprehend truck thieves.

Since December last year, unknown suspects have stolen freightliner and Mack truck tractors in southern Ontario, in particular the areas of Toronto, York, Durham, Peel and other jurisdictions policed by the Ontario Provincial Police.

Truck thefts under investigation now total 17 and the value exceeds $1,000,000.00.

The vehicles stolen from compounds are removed after gate chains are cut and others are just driven away from unattended truck terminals.

All 17 vehicles have been stolen during the dark hours and usually on weekends. The persons responsible for these crimes are well organized and to date have not been identified.

Other appeals for help in identifying these criminals will be made by Crime Stoppers on Radio Stations, local Newspapers, Cable Stations and C.K.V.R. Television in Barrie.

This is how you can help us solve crime. You pay off with information, and Crime Stoppers will pay off with cash.

Crime Stoppers will pay you up to $1000.00 if you supply information that leads to an arrest in these cases or any other serious crime. If an arrest is made resulting from your information, we will guarantee you never have to appear in court or identify yourself.

The Crime Stoppers Toll Free Number is: 1-800-387-8477 or in the Metro Area, 222-T.I.P.S.

Inspector Barry T. Delaney, Co-Ordinator of the York Program writes this column to help combat crime. A Citizen Board of Directors administers the local program, one of more than 600 Crime Stoppers in North America.

Reward money is raised through tax deductible donations and cheques may be sent to: Toronto & Regional Crime Stoppers, P.O. Box 86, Richmond Hill, Ontario, L4C 4X9.

Free party for ghosts

Ghosts, goblins and witches will be out in full force on Friday, Oct. 31 for a Halloween costume party sponsored by the Claremont Lions Club.

The fun gets underway at 7:15 p.m. in Claremont Community Centre with prizes awarded the best-costumed youngsters.

A 50-cent entry fee will be charged those not wearing Halloween outfits.

Theft charge laid by police

York Regional Police have laid 15 counts of theft under $1,000 against a Udora man.

The 26-year-old, employed by Anderson Haulage in Stouffville was arrested after $1,300 was collected to buy coats for the company and was never used to that end, police say.

The man was released to appear in court Nov. 10.
