

Brother Andre Youth to Marylake

By JULIE TWADDLE
While most of the students at Brother Andre were busy with their academic studies, many other students were fortunate enough to be away at Leadership Workshops.

On Tuesday, October 14th, three students travelled to Marylake for a leadership Youth Corps program. This trip involved Franca Cultrera, Tara Talbot and Paul Blackmore (presidents of the student, athletic and intramural councils, respectively). They were joined by student leaders from other schools, and focused their attention on activities to help them as leaders in the school community.

The other members of the school councils, team captains and other "leaders" in the school were also given an opportunity to show their Brother Andre school spirit and join in on a leadership weekend.

On Friday, October 17th, Paula Bankovich, Laureen Barretto, Kevin Bester, Mark Biernacki, Paul Blackmore, Kris Blaine, Sergio Bogani, Louise Churchill, Jackie Cosgrove, Monique D'Croix, Roel DelCarmen, Kelly Doyle, Rob Filomena, Megan Griffin, Yvonne Hoogeveen, Matthew Hughes, Cynthia Keyes, Lynda Khan, Jennie Lee, Jeff Lundy, Michael Quesnelle, Erin Sweeney, Tara Talbot, John Tse, Veronica Tomiolo, Christine Tuason, Terri Wilkie, myself, Mrs. Murphy and Mr. Stevens travelled to Camp Ekon, near the Parry Sound area.

We were later joined Friday night by staff members: Miss Deveau, Mr. Lottridge, Miss Camuti, Mr. Dziedic and Mrs. Hoerner.

Although having to "rough it" a bit, the leaders at Brother Andre managed to have a great time and learned something while doing so.

This camp, unlike the one at Marylake, was strictly Brother Andre staff and students.
