

WOMEN IN BUSINESS

SANDY FORBES

Sandy Forbes was born in Sydney, Australia and immigrated to Canada in 1966. She started her travel career with Air Canada in Vancouver. When she moved to Ontario in 1968, she switched to retail travel sales for the next 9 years. Following a career break to raise her family, Sandy seized at the opportunity to get back into the "Travel Business" by buying the local Goliger's Franchise recently. Eager to move ahead, whilst still maintaining the highest quality of service offered by the previous owner, Sandy is looking forward to servicing the Markham Community.

JUDY BEW

JUDY BEW AND COMPANY

477-9495

My service, although established in the Toronto area since 1984, has only recently been available to businesses and clubs within the York Region. Essentially, I offer high calibre executive secretarial and senior legal freelance services. I also provide word-processing services outside my clients' premises. This service is particularly useful to organizations interested in mailing lists, newsletters, etc. With over fifteen years experience in the secretarial field, I am able to provide a reliable and accurate service to my clients, qualities which are hard to find when dealing with temporary placements agencies.

JOCELYN SMITH

WE BUY AND SELL BOOKS 294-4860
191 WELLINGTON STREET EAST, MARKHAM MALL
MON-THURS., FRI., SAT. 10-5

Jocelyn Smith considers herself an "oldtimer" in the Markham community, having come from North Toronto to complete her school years in the "old" high school in Markham. After attending Toronto Teachers College, she taught in the area & then stayed home to raise 3 children. Her return to the classroom provided experience teaching special education in the Thornhill & Unionville area. Jocelyn opened Mike's Book Store in July 1984, thus embarking on her first venture into the world of business. Her store is one of 12 individually owned franchise operations located throughout southern Ontario, specializing in buying & selling used books with a unique buyback system. The response from the community has been most gratifying & encouraging. Enjoyable reading at affordable prices.
