Special concert to benefit heart fund

A cold door-to-door February fundraising drive triggered an idea in the mind of Markville Heart and Stroke Foundation volunteer Tony Murphy. "There has to be another way to raise money for this cause."

His idea, to hold a benefit concert at the plush new Markham Theatre is now a full-fledged community project with lots of local talent on stream. Tickets at $10 per seat should glean $4,000 for the Ontario Heart and Stroke

Foundation. The local February campaign raised more than $41,000.

The concert, to be held Nov. 15 will feature a double billing—The Gilbert and Sullivan Society and Markham Men of Harmony—each donating their time. Ross Sutherland from the latter group is co-producing the event.

Master of Ceremony for the evening is Tom Williamson, a local comedian who is also vice president of Underwood Chemicals,

Markham.

One treat for the evening will be a solo by Elizabeth Mawson, known to fans of Charlottetown Festival for her portrayal of "Marilla" in Anne of Green Gables for the past 19 years.

Bob Gibson, sales manager for Toshiba is donating an AM FM double tape radio as a door prize. For information or for tickets, call 294-1816, 294-6122 or Markham Theatre at 294-6122.
