

Moe Koffman Quintet
dazzles Uxbridge audience

Flautist Moe Koffman and his quintet took a large Uxbridge Music Hall audience by storm during a concert Saturday evening. Toronto-based Koffman is the latest in a long line of talented acts lined by the hall's entertainment committee. The final two dates in its 1986-87 concert series are Feb. 28 (Bolkom & Morris) and April 28 (National Tap Dance Company of Canada).

New play a thriller

UXBRIDGE — Uxbridge Players' next amateur theatre production should be a real thriller.

Edie Kwade is directing an all-woman cast in the Glyn Jones drama, Thriller of the Year. The show premieres at Uxbridge Music Hall on Friday, Nov. 14 with a special wine and cheese fund-raising night in aid of Uxbridge Community Care. A limited number of tickets are available at $10 for this night when doors open at 8 p.m. and the performance begins at 8:30 p.m.

Dinner theatre shows are scheduled for Saturday, Nov. 15 and 22 at a cost of $20. Doors open both those nights at 6:30 p.m.; dinner is served at 7 p.m. and the actors take to the stage at 8:30 p.m.

Cost of the play only each evening is $6.

Tickets are available in Uxbridge at The Sound Shop and Yellow Brick Road, 6 Brock St. West (852-5255).

Theatre-goers may also reserve a favorite table in advance by purchasing a subscription package for the season's three Uxbridge Player productions.
