Pickering High School honors top students

PICKERING — Several Claremont-area students were among those honored during a commencement ceremony Friday at Pickering High School. Included on the award list were Sean Mooney, who won the Pickering Lions Club bursary.

Henry Yi received a certificate recognizing academic excellence in Grade 11, while Tracie Redshaw received a subject award for industrial arts.

And John Waterworth of Conc.

4, Uxbridge Twp., received the Brougham Citizens' League Award, along with female recipient Allison Smart. A cheque for $200 is presented to the male and female students in Grade 12 who intend to continue their education at a post-secondary institution.

Local students who received their secondary school honor graduation diplomas included Karin Hering and Burk Pugh (who also received an Ontario Scholarship of $100).

Secondary school graduation

diplomas went to the following north Pickering residents:

Sharyn Jones, Terry Stewart, Sandra Jamieson, Tania Siebler, Catherine Craig, Shawna Foxton, Paul Houston, Tracie Redshaw, William Horne, Louise Redshaw, Angela Brooks, Sean Mooney, Casey Greenbury, Shane Kingston, Scott Collett, Ross Stratton, Dianne Loyst, Elizabeth Hopkins, Dwayne Lehman, Carolyn Death, Dawn Hedley and John Waterworth.
