

Carrier of the month Markham girl is multi-talented

Michelle Takach, 13, is a Grade 8 student at St. Patrick's Catholic School in Markham. She's born and bred in Markham and says she likes the town just as it is. "I wouldn't like it to get too big," she said.

Part of the reason Michelle finds Markham such a good place to live is that she's active with a whole lot of activities. Michelle took the under-14 doubles and single tennis tournaments this summer at Markham Tennis Club, races downhill at Skyloft Ski Club, takes German lessons (she's almost fluent) and takes organ lessons just for fun.

Michelle delivers 45 Economist and Sun and 85 Weekenders and says delivering the papers is her first job. The experience has taught her the good feeling of having money behind her in the bank. "The job has also helped me communicate with a variety of people," says Michelle, who added she does like having spending money to buy things once in awhile.

Michelle was chosen carrier of the month because of her courteous efficient manner and friendly personality. She was presented with a plaque by Lea Kitler, district rep. and also a gift certificate from McDonald's Restaurant for dinner for two.

Lea Kitler, district rep. presents Michelle Takach with her carrier of the month award. Michelle is in grade 8 at St. Patrick's School.
