Leafs in Markham

It's not local hero Steve Thomas, but two members of the rejuvenated Toronto Maple Leafs will be in Markham on a charity mission Monday evening.

Russ Courtnall and Mike Allison are slated to be at the Shoppers Drug Mart outlet in Markville Shopping Centre from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m.

The pair are donating their time to help support the Shoppers/

Toronto Maple Leafs fundraising drive for the Toronto Star Santa Claus Fund.

For every official Maple Leaf '86/87 calendar sold at Shoppers Drug Mart, $1 will be donated to the Santa Claus Fund.

The objective is to raise $100,000 to provide gift boxes for 25,000 needy children. Courtnall and Allison will autograph all the calendars sold.

'They tip, we smash!' says volleyball coach

 "Successful volleyball means keeping the concentration and intensity going," Thomas pointed out. "But after winning the first game we got a little too confident. That loss woke us up."

Although the entire roster played well (particularly setters John Naoum and George Karayianni), he singled out Mike Collins for his leadership.

"I can honestly say that when we were down, it took a real spiritual punch by Mike to get everyone back up," Thomas praised. "His enthusiasm helped bring everyone around."

Of course, Stouffville and Unionville aren't assured of a DYS-SA championship meeting yet.

There are other schools in their pool, like Pickering and Anderson, which they must overcome first.

Thomas noted his boys have played Durham squads in two tournaments this season, "and we've won our share of games, so I'd like to say our chances are as good as anyone's."

Fletcher says he won't take the Durham teams for granted, but the number one school on his mind is still Unionville.

"We didn't have much competition in York league play this year, but Unionville is definitely the team to beat," he said.

"They fake hit and tip the ball well. We are a power hitting team. They tip, we smash!"
