

Roof-raising revelry

The Studio 4 (above) composed of Cam Black, Dave Streeter, Ken Hawkins and Dave Feltrin sang one last number before they took their show to the Markham Theatre. The group visited Participation House last Sunday before the concert to Raise the Roof of the local home for handicapped adults. Far left, Dinah Christie performs for the crowd at the benefit concert. Tom Kneebone (at left) does a 'pas de deux' with a graceful gorilla (David Gibb). The concert was held to raise money for a new roof for Participation House. It was co-sponsored by the Markham Economist and Sun and Theatre 48 Productions. — Photos by Sjoerd Witteveen

Guitar and piano in combo

A talented husband and wife team will perform in concert with Performing Arts York Region Friday Nov. 28.
 Norbert Kraft, classical guitarist and Bonnie Silver, harpsichordist and pianist have recently performed in Ottawa for the Governor General.

The York Region concert will be held at Thornhill United Church, Dudley Ave. at 8 p.m. Tickets are available at the door, adults, $8, seniors and students, $6. Children accompanied by an adult, $4 at the door.

Mr. Kraft won the 1985 10th annual Andres Segovia International guitar competition and was also the 1979 winner of C.B.C.'s National Talent Festival.

Ms. Silver has won the Forsythe Scholarship from University of Toronto and has appeared on television and radio. She's also been a guest artist with many major orchestras.
