Assault charge

WHITCHURCH — A 33-year-old Whitchurch-Stouffville man has been charged with sexual assault against an eight-year-old girl.

The alleged offences relate to a period extending from Sept. 1, 1985 to July 31, 1986.

The accused, said to reside in the area of Conc. 7 and the Aurora Sideroad, will appear in Provincial Court, Newmarket, Dec. 11.

A top investigator

STOUFFVILLE — During his career as an officer with the Metropolitan Toronto Police Department, Staff-Sgt. Wayne Oldham has been assigned to many of the city's high profile cases.

Last week he concluded an investigation into yet another with the arrest of Harriet Renae Giesecke, 40, of Wellesley Street East, Toronto and Bruce Bernard Lynch, 25, of Huntsville and more recently of Kingston.

The two accused are charged in connection with the murder, Sept. 22, of Scarborough hockey coach Randy Carl Giesecke, 35.

The victim was shot and killed as he stepped from his truck in an underground garage on Trudelle Street, Scarborough.

Staff-Sgt. Oldham was assisted on the case by Sgt. Neale Tweedy. Wayne is the son of Jim and Alma Oldham, R.R. 2, Stouffville.
