It's Olde Tyme Christmas fun for Unionville

The fifth annual Olde Tyme Christmas celebration takes place this weekend along Unionville's Main St., with holiday entertainment and fun for everyone.

Main St. will be closed to traffic on Friday evening, which shouldn't cause a problem, according to John Kerr.

Plenty of parking available

"There is plenty of parking on the perimeter of the Main St.," said Mr. Kerr. "People will be able to park in municipal lots, at Crosby Arena, in school parking lots and at the library."

Several carolling groups will be strolling the street, along with the Funtime Strummers who will entertain crowds with their bango playing. The Markham Men of Harmony and the Cachet Choral Group also plan to attend. Sesame Street characters will visit with children and Santa Claus will be on hand to listen to Christmas lists.

Shops open until midnight

Shops along Main St. will be open until midnight, offering refreshments and treats for those browsing.

The Optimist Club will set up a booth in the middle of town, and serve coffee and hot chocolate.

If you miss the activity on Friday night, several groups will be back on Saturday and Sunday. Stores will open at 10 a.m. on Saturday with the Fun Strummers roaming the streets at noon, along with the Dickens Carollers, from Pickering, and Santa Claus. On Sunday, the famed barbershop chorus, The Markham Men of Harmony, will be back with the Dickens Carollers and Santa Claus.

Crafts on display too

The Ice Cream Emporium, which sits vacant during the winter months, beside the Unionville House Restaurant, will display the wares of local crafts people on Friday evening. Artisans will be selling gingerbread houses, dried flower wreaths and ceramics.

Sponsored by Unionville's BIA (Business Improvement Area), Olde Tyme Christmas has become a yearly trek for people from all over Ontario. Restaurants, along the Main St., have been booked with reservations since August.

Feelin' like my Kettle Creek.

You know those weekends when you reserve both days for just the two of you, to do whatever you feel like doing?

Those are the times when we feel like our Kettle Creek. They're comfortable cottons, and casual enough to wear, wherever we want to go. And not only are they made with hand-crafted comfort, they're also made with handcrafted quality.

So they're guaranteed to continue looking good for as many weekends as we feel like our Kettle Creek.

And now, Kettle Creek's come out with a new Cool Weather Collection, with warm, plush corduroys, big soft shirts and more dressy styles for work.

So we can feel like our Kettle Creek even on week days.
