Bishop treated to a 'T'

Jo-Ann Lim, 11, conscientiously pours tea for Bishop Robert Clune at St. Edward Catholic School in Markham as Judy Lim, 8, waits to stir in the milk and sugar. The Bishop celebrated a mass with the students and staff at St. Edward to commemorate the school's official opening. The mass was followed by a reception for staff and guests. The school's permanent building was completed last month and the teachers and students have moved in. Portable classrooms have been abandoned for those in the main building.

Living on Purpose

"Get ready to go"

By DAVE PETRESCUE Pastor, Unionville Alliance Church

You may have heard the story about the two women who met after a long separation. One woman asked her friend, "Do you remember the 'life plan' you used to talk about when we were in school? Did you ever really carry it out?"

"Sure did," the other replied. "First I married a millionaire, next an actor, then a minister, and now I'm married to an undertaker."

"Whew, four husbands!" exclaimed the first. "But what does that have to do with your 'life plan'?"

"You know," replied the second woman, "one for the money, two for the show, three to get ready and four to go!"

This woman may have been an effective executive for she knew that success requires "knowing where you're going". He who aims at nothing always hits it. The wise person also plans his/her work and works his/her plan.

The benefits of rediscovering these age-old principles compound with use. Most of us would agree that it is good to plan — whether it is for a diet, a new home, a vacation, a whole lifetime or just a day's work.

Why, then, do we think it presumptuous to plan for eternity?

Jesus told a parable about a rich man who did a fine job of planning for his future. He built big barns to house all his goods, but he had not planned for his soul. The night of his death, Jesus called him a fool.

I don't necessarily recommend marrying a millionaire, an actor, a minister and an undertaker — especially in that order — but I do recommend getting ready to go.

Nobody plans to fail. They simply fail to plan.
