

Lori Coleby

Secretary's award

BALLANTRAE— Fourteen-year-old Lori Coleby, a member of the Ballantrae 4-H Homemakers Club, has won the York Region Secretary's Award.

The prize, a pen set, was presented by Rural Organization Specialist Ann Hankinson at a York North Achievement Program in Holland Landing Dec. 1.

Lori's the daughter of Al and Barbara Coleby, Hwy. 48, Ballantrae, and a Grade 9 student at Stouffville Dist. Secondary School.

The award came as a complete surprise, Lori said. She's been a 4-H member two years and enjoys it. So far, she's completed four projects and is working towards her County Diploma.

Heather Andrews, co-leader of the Ballantrae Club, praised Lori's secretarial work, describing it as "excellent."

Concert

STOUFFVILLE— For a second year, the Christmas Band-Choir Concert, hosted by Stouffville Dist. Secondary School, will be held at the Markham Theatre.

The date is Monday, Dec. 15 at 8 p.m.

There will be performances by the Senior Band; the Junior Band; the Grade 9 Band; the Junior and Senior Stage Bands and the S.D.S.S. Choir.

Admission is $4 adults; $2 senior citizens and children.

Tickets are available from the High School Music Department or at the Theatre.

Music for the occasion was provided by Caroline Middleton, Church Street North, Stouffville. The project's convenor was Miriam Duckett, R.R. 4, Stouffville. ---Jim Thomas
