School enjoyed big year

Orchard Park Public School's girls' volleyball team capped off a successful season with a consolation title win at the York Region finals Dec. 11. Orchard Park downed Aurora's Regency Acres in three straight games after earlier losing to eventual champion Milliken Mills. The Stouffville squad, coached by Kelly Pfennig and Arnie Marcus, also won the most sportsmanlike trophy. Team members are, front (from left) Susan Baston and Lynn Nicholson. Back row includes Leanne Hoover, Jenny Hart, Terrill Junkin, Tina Palmer, Mary-Lynn Thomas and Amanda McLean.

Wildlife artist hosts open house

Goodwood native Marc Barrie (left) was on hand Friday during a special Christmas open house, held at his art gallery, in Brougham. A large number of collectors had a rare opportunity to meet the acclaimed wildlife painter, who now resides north of Port Hope. The 24-year-old Barrie is seen with Ajax's Jean Ford, a winner of one of several draws held during the evening.

Woman hurt

By MARJORIE WOODLAND
FOURTH LINE — An unfortunate car accident occurred Saturday afternoon at the intersection of Conc. 4 and Durham Region Road 21.

A 34-year-old Goodwood woman, Andrea Weleff, received serious internal injuries when her vehicle collided with another. She was taken to Uxbridge Cottage Hospital then transported by air ambulance to Toronto General.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Bunker of Kushog Lake visited with family in Goodwood Saturday. Verna is slowly improving and has advanced from a cast to a splint, although she is still limited in her activities.

Elva Symes is on the sick list again with a type of flu. Many of us miss you Elva and we hope you make a quick recovery.

Goodwood Baptist Sunday School scholars displayed a great deal of talent as they performed a Christmas program on Sunday evening. The thought-provoking and inspirational message.

Sympathy of the community is extended to Maude Bell and family on the loss of husband and father, Gordon Bell. Mr. Bell passed away Friday following a lengthy illness. He will be sadly missed by his wife, Maude; sons Ivan of Ayr, Ont., and Harold of Goodwood; daughters Carol Van Kessel of Whitby and Shirley-Ewing of Stouffville.
