Midgets win

A three-goal third period broke open a 1-1 draw and gave the Markville Toyota Midgets a 4-1 triumph over Oshawa. Kelly Curry, Mark Tullock, Bill Millar and Paul Winnett did the scoring.

Millar, Bruce Thompson, Rich Broughton and Gord Roblin collected the assists. It was Markham's fifth straight win, after capturing its division in the Winterhawk tournament.

Minor Bantams win 2

The Unionville Motors Minor Bantams won two of their four outings in the recently-completed Markham Winterhawk competition.

After battling Whitby to a 1-1 draw, Markham dropped a 2-1 decision to the Villagers. Stephen Searle (from Kevin Spongale) gave the club a temporary second-period lead.

Four straight first and second-period goals gave the squad a 4-1 win over St. Thomas. Robbie Wynne had two goals, with Todd Gerrard and David Maybury completing the offence.

Chris Stover picked up two assists. Singles went to Maybury, Searle, Darren Crawford and Robert Jorgenson.

The locals grabbed a 3-0 lead over Orillia and never looked back, cruising to a 4-2 victory. Mike Nucci scored twice, with Stover and Jorgenson adding one apiece.

Austin Brennan had three assists and Kevin Green one.

Good leads way

David Good's hat trick led the Linda Norman Novice Selects past Unionville 4-1. Jeff Blanchard had the other goal. Mark Burrell, Charles Chung and Darren Webb assisted.

Meanwhile, the squad reached the finals of the recent North Toronto Christmas Tournament before losing.

Scott Higgins and Danny Drecun had the shutout in game one, a 3-0 win over Etobicoke. Good (from Mike Kernohan), Jason Valin (from Richard Morra & Chris Lawton) and Brett Mooney did the scoring.

Markham played catch-up in the second outing, but did it well enough to gain a 2-2 draw with Leaside. Morra (from Burrell) and Good (from Scott Ponsford) handled the offence.

Game three was a lot easier, with the locals scoring seven times before Pleasantview could reply and winning 7-1.

Good and Burrell had two goals apiece. Webb, Justin Peroff and Charles Chung rounded out the scoring. Valin and Jeff Blanchard had two assists each, while Morra and Ponsford earned one apiece.

Chung, Burrell and Blanchard connected in the semi-final, a 3-1 triumph over West Mall. Valin had two assists and Good one.

Markham didn't score in the final, but managed to hold North Toronto to a 1-0 lead until midway through the third period. The final score was 4-0. Morra was picked Markham's tourney MVP.

Big third period

The Rotary Club Novices used a three-goal third period to break a 1-1 tie and take a 4-1 exhibition win over Ajax.

Mark Petrou, Steve Taylor, Paul Franklin and Brent Hughes had the goals. Petrou claimed two assists, with Franklin, Mike Gellard and Doug Maybury earning singles.

Semi-finalists

The Golden Griddle (Carlton St.) Bantams reached the semi-finals before bowing out of the recent Winterhawk competition.

Game one saw the locals hitting slow down Hisingen, Sweden enough to record a 4-1 win. Dan Tinkler (with two), Chris Lamarre and Derek Power had the goals.

Paul Pachis picked up two assists, with Brian Hayes, Kyle O'Brien and Boyd Cowan getting the others.

Markham did everything but score enough in the second battle, settling for a 3-3 draw with Chinguacousy. Brad May collected two goals and Tinkler one. Tinkler and Hayes earned two assists each.

In game three, Welsh, Hayes, Tinkler and Power scored as the locals grabbed a 4-0 lead and cruised to a 4-1 win over Milton.

May and O'Brien picked up two assists each. Tinkler, Hayes and Boyd Cowan had one apiece.

Markham fell behind 2-0 in the semi-final and never caught up, losing 6-2 to Newmarket. May had both goals, with Welsh picking up an assist.

Big win

After one period of play it became obvious which was the better team — and by game's end, no one could dispute it.

The Scotiabank Peewees took a 6-2 first-period lead, upped it to 11-2 after two frames, and finished up with an unbelievable 19-2 win over a hapless Lakeland, Michigan team in the recent Winterhawk tournament.

Goals went to Jonathan Cooper (4), Mike Yeo, Mike Feasby & Brad Prentice (3 each), Perry Brazeau (2), Dave Rudy, Rick Cooper, Gavin Robinson and Chris Maybury.

Robinson collected six assists, Feasby five, Jonathan Cooper four, Maybury, Rick Cooper, Yeo & Prentice three apiece, Cory Gannon two, Brazeau, Rudy and Tom English singles.

Markham started the competition with a 3-1 win over Milton. Yeo (2) and Robinson scored. Assists went to Robinson (2), Maybury, Cooper and Prentice.

Goulding Park wasn't as kind as Michigan, handing the locals a 6-3 loss in game three. Yeo (2) and Prentice handled the offence. Jonathan Cooper, Yeo, Robinson and Feasby assisted.

Markham won two of five games in a Richmond Hill tournament. Brazeau did all the scoring (from Maybury, Rudy and Rick Cooper) in a 5-2 loss to Mississauga.

Feasby grabbed the scoring spotlight with both goals in game two, a 2-2 draw with the Villagers. Cory Gannon and Tom English assisted.

Paul Goddard earned the shutout and Gavin Robinson (2) & Dave Rudy connected in a 3-0 win over Bolton. Maybury (2), Yeo, Brazeau, Gannon and Rick Cooper had the set-ups.

A three-goal third period helped Markham stop a Waterloo comeback and record a 7-6 victory. Robinson had three goals, with Rudy, Feasby, Maybury and Prentice completing the offence.

English (from Maybury) had the lone goal during the third period of a 2-1 overtime loss to Goulding Park.

3 points for Selects

Stu Currie (from Mike Gottschling) and Bryce Taylor (from Kevin Cluett) connected as the Graphics International Minor Pee-wee Selects tied Newmarket 2-2.

Mat Garvin, Gottschling and Mike Bell scored in a 3-2 win over Malvern. Bucky Houston had two assists.

Consolation champs

After an early loss, the McCowan Mobile Mix Atoms rebounded to win the consolation crown in a recent Fenelon Falls tournament.

Kevin Wilson had two goals and Matt Seon on in the first game, a 4-3 loss to Oshawa. Ryan Hosford and Cameron Western assisted. Mike Lane had the shutout in game two, a 9-0 triumph over another Oshawa team. Ryan Hosford (3), Chris McLeod (2), Robbie Candlish, Matt Seon, Anton Bates and Richard Franklin had the goals.

Franklin and McColl earned two assists each, while McLeod had one.

In the consolation final, Candlish scored twice and Flood once to give Markham a 3-1 triumph over the Oshawa Bruins. Bates, Franklin and Dean Mann assisted.

League action saw Lane get the shutout in a 4-0 win over Thornhill. Hosford, Candlish, Wilson and McLeod scored. McLeod & Franklin (2 each), Seon and McColl assisted.

Tourney champs

Three straight victories gave the Encore Foods Minor Atom Selects the championship of a Scarborough tournament.

Game one saw Peter Morra and Mark Andrews tally in a 2-1 overtime win over Cedar Hill.

The championship saw Morra's hat trick provide enough firepower to knock off the Scarborough Canadians 4-2. Chris Upper had the other tally.

In recent exhibition action Morra had two goals and White & Maloney one each in an 8-4 loss to a Pleasantview Minor/Major Atom club. Kelly had three assists, while Spataro and Mott claimed singles.

Maloney and Andrews scored in a 2-0 win over Pleasantview. Mor-

Firefighters split pair

1987 has been a so-so year thus far for the Markham Calathumpian's Firefighters.

Since the new year began, the squad has split a pair of Southern Ontario Firefighters Hockey League games.

The first outing saw a four-goal third period give the locals a 6-4 come-from-behind triumph over first-place Scarborough. It was their first game in almost three weeks, and first win since October.

Glen Stevenson led the attack with a pair of goals. Singles came from Dennis Eadie, Gary Masters, Jamie Scrymgeour and Tim Beckett. Stevenson and Don McClean collected two assists each.

One apiece went to Eadie, Beckett, Scrymgeour, Greg Gates and John Hummell.

Markham played catch-up for most of its battle with Toronto and ended up on the losing end of a 7-3 score. McClean, Adie and Dave Scott supplied the offence.

John Hummell led the assist-getters with a pair. Beckett, Scott, Scrymgeour and Dave Nobert earned singles.
