

Skate-o-rama

After 49 years of skating at Cedarena's open air rink in Cedar Grove, Helen and Bill Bartlett thought it fitting they should help celebrate the skating rink's 60th anniversary. Here they're seen passing by the rink's diamond anniversary cake.

Mini expo next week

A small scale tete-a-tete for local business people being held next week brings expo to Markham.

Sponsored by the Markham Board of Trade, it's the fourth business to business event and has been dubbed a "mini-expo" and networking system for local firms.

It's being held Wednesday, Feb. 9 at the Sheraton Parkway Hotel on Hwy 7 at Hwy 404.

The show is from 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. Door prizes will be awarded and admission is free.

For more information, contact the Board of Trade office at 474-0730.

Local robbery

Police said cosmetics, food products and a rowing machine valued at $500 were stolen from Zipp Drugs on Wellington St. West sometime between September and November of last year.
