Wallet grabbed by thief

By CONST. GARY MCBRIEN
York Regional Police
Toronto and Regional Crime Stoppers and York Regional Police are seeking the assistance and co-operation of the public in an effort to solve a robbery in Newmarket.

On Oct. 7, 1986 at 7:06 p.m., the female victim, was walking across the parking lot of the Upper Canada Mall. Suddenly a man approached the victim from behind, bumped into her, grabbed her wallet and fled on foot.

Suspect is described as follows: male, white, late teens, 5'6", straight brown hair, unkept, clean shaven, wearing jean jacket and jeans.

Crime Stoppers will pay up to $1,000 for information that leads to an arrest. You will never have to identify yourself and you never have to appear in court.

This is how you can help us solve this crime or any other serious case: You pay off with information and Crime Stoppers pays off with cash.

The Crime Stoppers toll free number is 1-800-387-8477 or locally 222-TIPS.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Constable Gary McBrien, co-ordinator of the York-Regional program, writes this column to help combat crime. A citizen Board of Directors administers the local program, one of the more than 650 Crime Stoppers Programs in North America. Reward money is raised through tax deductible donations and cheques may be sent to: Toronto and Regional Crime Stoppers, P.O. Box 86, Richmond Hill, Ontario, L4C 4X9.

Funds for a hospital

Director of Markham Village Women's Club Rosalie Campagna-Brown presents a cheque for $1000 to Joan Wood, vice-chairman of Markham/Stouffville Hospital Board. The donation came from one month memberships being offered during December.

Tools stolen

Around $400 worth of tools was stolen from a construction site Monday night, said police.

The tools, which belonged to Buttonwood Homes Ltd. of Concord, were taken from a lot near Woodbine and 16th Avenues.
