

Late Alex Schneider loved his family

CLAREMONT — Service was held from the Claremont Baptist Church, Monday, for Mr. Alex Schneider, following his passing Jan. 29 in Scarborough Centenary Hospital. He was 86.
Mr. Schneider had been a resident of Parkview Home, Stouffville for eight years. He was admitted to hospital Dec. 31.
Born near South River, the son of Daniel and Mary Schneider, Mr. Schneider spent several winters employed in a lumber camp near Timmins. In 1932, he moved to a farm on Sideline 10, Conc. 8, Pickering, and remained there until his retirement in 1968.

A new home was built on Conc. 9, Pickering where Mr. and Mrs. Schneider lived until her passing in 1973.
Mr. Schneider was a member in the congregation of Claremont Baptist Church and served on the property committee. He was an expert handyman, able to repair almost anything. He was an enthusiastic hockey fan during the era of the Intermediate and Senior Stouffville Clippers. He also enjoyed watching Maple Leaf games on television.
Mr. Schneider took great pride in his family — four daughters,

Ivy (Mrs. Ross Wideman), R.R. 3, Stouffville; Jean (Mrs. Jack Hall), R.R. 21, Claremont; Mary (Mrs. Stan McMullen), R.R. 1, Claremont; Joyce of Scarborough; nine grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. He is survived also by two brothers and four sisters.
Rev. Cam Watts conducted the funeral service, Monday, with spring interment, Claremont Union Cemetery. The pall-bearers were — Paul, Harold and Norman Wideman; Don Schier, Ron and Gary McMullen.
