

Injured youngster recovers, awaits return to public school

Melissa Carroll (left) has made a remarkable recovery since suffering a life-threatening brain injury last October when kicked by a horse at an area equestrian centre. The R.R. 3, Stouffville youngster remained in a coma for 17 days but has rebounded to the point where she can re-join her kindergarten class at Claremont Public School next Monday. Melissa, who just turned six, is pictured here with sister Tara, 9, and some of the stuffed animals she received while a patient at Toronto's Hospital For Sick Children. She's completing rehabilitation therapy at a Metro facility this week before returning home for good.

Scientists at work

By DENISE McDONALD
STOUFFVILLE — Over 40 projects ranging from food preservation and aviation, to ghosts and electric illumination were exhibited at Summitview Public School during their annual science fair, Thursday.

in a way no one has tried before. Both Warren and Aaron claim to have seen a ghost.

"A long time ago there was a man riding his motorcycle near my cottage in Port Perry and he got his head cut off when he drove under a barbed wire fence. Since then I've seen the headlights of his motorcycle's ghost."

Special skate

STOUFFVILLE — Tuesday evenings are Adult Skating nights at the Rec. Centre.
Tuesday, Feb. 10 will be special. It's a Valentine Skate with refreshments served at the conclusion.
The time is 7:30 to 9 p.m.

"We've been holding this fair for almost 15 years, and the projects just keep getting better and better," says Science teacher Ted Sheppard.
When asked why they chose ghosts as a science project, Warren Tapscott and Aaron Brock, both in Grade 7 say "we always wondered whether ghosts were real or not and wanted to find out

Winners in this area of competition will exhibit their work at the Area F competition at Raymerwood Public School, Markham, on Feb. 26.
