Variety Show '87 in good hands

Variety Show '87, hosted by students and staff advisors of Stouffville Dist. Secondary School, goes on stage March 6, 7 and 8. Rehearsals are beginning in earnest under the watchful eyes of

Victoria Square folk to speak their minds

By EVELYN MILSTED GORMLEY — The community of Victoria Square will soon be represented by a ratepayers' association. An organizational meeting is set for Thursday, Feb. 19 at 7:30 p.m., in the Victoria Square Community Centre. The area will be bounded by Hwy. 404 on the west; Major Mackenzie Drive on the south; Warden Avenue on the east and 19th Avenue on the north. Persons desirous of additional information are asked to call 887-5669 after 6 p.m.

All hamlets in the Town of Whitchurch-Stouffville, including Gormley, will receive identifying signs. Residents feel each community has an historic past and the names should be preserved.

Sympathy is extended to the family of Mrs. Cora Conner following her passing, Feb. 3 in York Central Hospital, Richmond Hill. She was 84. Mrs. Conner is survived by one son Neil, R.R. 2, Stouffville and four daughters, Eleanor (Mrs. William Simpson), R.R. 3, Stouffville; Doris (Mrs. Howard Burton), of Claremont; Marjorie (Mrs. Murray Johnson), of Toronto; and Marian (Mrs. Paul Meyer), of Palmerston. Mr. and Mrs. Conner farmed for many years on Kennedy Road, R.R. 1, Unionville. The funeral service was held Thursday afternoon from Springvale Baptist Church.

Services on Sunday evening at both the Gormley Missionary Church and Heise Hill Brethern In Christ Church were cancelled because of the storm.

Sympathy is extended to Mr. John Smith in the sudden death Saturday of his only brother, Mr. Glenn Smith. Glenn is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Smith. Service was held Monday from the Marshall Funeral Home, Richmond Hill with spring interment Victoria Square Cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hogg spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. Alvin Sider in Stevensville. Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Bennett and Mrs. Mary Ingleton of Markham were Saturday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hill.

The Heise Hill Ladies are holding a Coffee Hour, Tuesday, Feb. 24 at 7:30 p.m., in the auditorium at Parkview Village, Stouffville. The feature "This Is Your Color Presentation" will be given by Robin Steckley. Betty Sproton, missionary on furlough from Lima, Peru is the guest speaker.

The Gormley Women's Institute will meet on Wednesday, Feb. 17 at 7:30 p.m., in the home of Miss K. Ackerman. The roll call will be answered by "Telling Something About Prince Edward Island". A series of slides will be shown by Bob Atkinson.

Top juried art to be displayed

STOUFFVILLE — The Juried Drawing Exhibition at Latcham Gallery proved very successful.

Eighty-nine artists submitted 166 drawings. The work was juried by June Drutz, Howard Gerry and Ann Ziegler.

Thirty-nine drawings were selected to be exhibited.

Recognition was given to specific works in the following categories:

Best Traditional Drawing Approach — Norma Jacobs, ($100); Honorable Mention — Lois Ellis.

Best Transitional Drawing Approach — Robin Hesse, ($100); Honorable Mention — Sally Wildman.

Best Investigative Drawing Approach — Claudia McKnight, ($100); Honorable Mention — Anna Lena Perner.

The cash awards will be presented at the show's opening this Sunday, (Feb. 15), from 2 to 4 p.m.

Latcham Gallery wishes to express appreciation to McNeil Pharmaceutical (Canada) Limited for its financial contribution as an annual corporate sponsor.
