Other Farquarson scorers were Don Lloyd with two, Glen Hammond, Murray Ferguson and Gord Smith. Dave Boyd and Lionel Villeneuve responded for Smurthwaite. The realtors were on a roll this week as Century 21-Meharg beat Towne Restaurant 8-2.

Pat Matigan with three, Barry Hart with two, Wayne Ellis, Ron Vautier, and Bob McKinnon scored for the winners. Art Nicholson and Wayne McMann replied for Towne. In other SAHL play, Village Landscaping flattened Canadian Tire 7-4. ## SAHL dance

The SAHL will be dancing on more than the ice this Saturday night when they hold a Valentine Dance at the Recreation Centre.

Tickets are $5 and there will be a buffet and disc jockey. For more information on the dance and how to purchase tickets, please call Jim Wagg at 640-4650.

Comedy ski team

The Stouffville Men's Ski Team proved to be the fastest and funniest thing on the slopes last Friday when they made their annual trip to Hidden Valley in Huntsville. Members of the S.Y.S.T.V. and C. Team (Stouffville Yacht, Ski, Tennis, Volleyball and Comedy Team), they participated in ski races and joke telling contests.

Host for the day, Stan Newmarch, was also a gold medal winner, taking the prize in the over-49 division.

Jason Stronach, a new recruit, was the fastest team member down the hill.

Before leaving for the trip, Jason had been instructed by his mother not to ski faster than father Dave. However, try as he might, this was impossible.

"I couldn't help it," Jason said.

The closest race of the day saw Gord Ness beat Bob Lewis by 9/100ths of a second for a gold medal.

Other gold medal winners included Dave Stronach, Len Greenwood, Wayne Newmarch, Ross Bannerman and Phil Lavell.

Silver medal winners were Bob Lewis, Gord Ness, Terry Alexis and Kerry O'Brien.

Bronze medals were awarded to John Griffiths, Dennis Sainsbury, Ron (Snowman of the Year) Renwick, Terry Hays, Gary Murphy, John O'Connor and Con (Killer) O'Connell.

The competition in the joke telling contest was intense, with Gord Ness taking top spot and Dave Stronach second prize.

Special mention goes to Bob Lewis who told the most jokes, all of which were met with complete silence.
