TO ALL PROSPECTIVE HOME BUYERS IN YORK REGION

The York Region Board of Education is a system that provides a sound educational program at all grade levels (kindergarten to secondary school graduation) for pupils with varied interests, needs, and abilities. We are pleased that you are contemplating a move to York Region and planning to enrol your children in our system.

We strongly encourage you to contact the Area Office serving the particular section of the Region that interests you. The listing below indicates the Board's Area structure, the location of the Area Offices, and the telephone numbers.

We urge you to call to determine school attendance boundaries and the availability of accommodation for students. Due to the rapid growth in the Region, portable accommodation and bus transportation out of the neighbourhood community are not unusual. Accommodation continues to be the most serious difficulty which The York Region Board of Education faces.
