Artists plan to celebrate

Planning is underway for Uxbridge's second annual Celebration of the Arts, a three-day pot-pourri of music, theatre, art and film set for Sept. 18-20.

During an annual general meeting Jan. 20, artistic directors Tom Baker (music), Roz Pritchard (theatre), Christopher Chapman (film) and John Richmond (visual arts) presented a tentative outline of activities for the event.

The festival's organizing body is now attempting to strengthen its financial position by enlisting 500 members by April 30.

A $5 membership in Uxbridge Celebration of the Arts Inc. entitles members to first priority for 1987 tickets.

Membership application forms are attached to the arts organization's February newsletter, and are also available at the Hobby Horse Arms restaurant, Main St. North in Uxbridge.
