

Speakers impress judges

By DEBORAH GARLAND

STOUFFVILLE — Confidence, eloquence and the heart of an actor

These qualities were shared by six participants in the Stouffville Lions Club Effective Speaking Contest, Feb. 16 in Latham Gallery of the Public Library.

The evening's chairman was Ivan Harris, head of Educational Services and a Club past-president.

Judges were — Joan Hetherington, Lovanna Sanders and Ted Topping Jr. The scorekeeper was 1st vice-president Mike Grinnell. Lion past-president Lorne Boadway distributed gifts of appreciation to the judges.

First in the boys' division was 12-year-old Aaron Brock of Summitview School, Stouffville. He described "Life As A Middle Brother".

First for the girls was Jeni Montgomery, 13, of the Stouffville Christian School. She spoke about "A Souvenir Passport On Its Way To Expo '86".

Other entries were — Michelle Powell, Tim Ferguson, Doug Macklin and Michelle Hofstee.

Each contestant received an engraved plaque and a cash prize.

Both Aaron and Jeni will advance to the Zone speak-off at Stouffville's Deer Park Inn Theatre, March 10. The winners will then go on to the Regionals in the spring.
