Marny Hunt believes in going 1st Class. She chose the Bestsellers.

Marny chose to make the most of her many years of valuable experience in real estate by joining the National Real Estate Service Team. As vice president and co-founder of NRS Preferred Properties Corp. she brings to the firm a broad range of expertise. Because of her own background, being transferred from city to city, and country to country she has made relocations her specialty working with firms such as IBM Canada, Zerex, Imperial Oil, CIL and Fiberglass Canada, to help settle all members of the family. Marny also has experience representing homes in the Unionville, Markham and Scarborough areas. Before joining real estate she had positions in industry and collected experience in both the banking and computer technology areas.

National Real Estate Service is fortunate that it can attract capable sales personnel like Marny to its best selling sales team. Marny can show her clients homes in Vancouver, Winnipeg or across Canada sitting in the comfort of their home in Markham. Markham real estate needs are professionally served by sales people like Marny who think nothing of calling Australia or Rome to service her clients need. We're pleased to be backing her with the entire NRS marketing system.
