

Legion party raises $ for Easter Seals

As always, Mickey Mouse (Joyce Morrison) was a favorite with the younger set at Sunday's Stouffville Legion party in support of the Easter Seal Society. One of Mickey's biggest fans was 3-year-old Erica Black of Manitoba Street.

The Legion's guest of honor, Charlie Farquharson, took time out to jam it up with Whitchurch-Stouffville birthday girl Jamie Hakonson, who turned 10 on Saturday.

Ray McEdden, Legion district commander for zone A2, agreed to have his face painted as part of a fund-raising project. His new appearance will be right in line with the likes of Timmy/Tammy.

Comedian Charlie Farquharson (alias Don Herron) puts his head together with female counterpart, Charleen Farquharson (alias Whitchurch-Stouffville Mayor Fran Sainsbury). The two were part of the entertainment at a Timmy/Tammy Jamboree hosted Sunday by Royal Canadian Legion branch 459.

Timmy talks to Tammy

Former Timmy for 1959, Ed Hakonson (left), talked with Tammy of 1981 Nancy Kralovic during Sunday's jamboree program. Mr. Hakonson praised Easter Seal volunteers for their on-going work in support of disabled young people.

A full entertainment line-up included Brooklin's Carl Leitch and his Country Ramblers, who apparently helped put the audience in a generous mood. About $4,500 was collected for the Easter Seal Society.

Youngsters flocked to have their faces painted, including 4-year-old Gail MacLaren of Blake Street, Stouffville. Here, she gets a touch up from mother Barb MacLaren.
