High schoolers jet to exotic locales

By JEFF CARNEY

Sound the trumpets!! Toll the bells!! Let the PIGEONS LOOSE!! For, at long last, March break has finally arrived at SDSS (with many a sigh of relief!)

Yes folks, it is that time of year again when students and teachers enjoy a well-earned respite from the rigors of the regular school day, and celebrate in style! After all, there is SO much to be celebrated. Spring is already upon us (which means sports like baseball, football and floor hockey are soon to be incorporated into phys. ed. classes), and there are only, gasp, 58 school days left in the 1986-87 year. The band exchange is fast approaching, and the spring prom is but six weeks away!

As exciting as these prospects are, students were smiling for other reasons this week. You see, for most people, March break is merely a time to escape from the pressures of work. But for most students, it is time to escape from the duldrums of the Canadian climate.

Students suffering from severe cases of cabin fever visited the March break specialist, and after consulting with the Bank of Mom and Dad, were prescribed a holiday outside of Canada.

As always, Florida, or the Promised Land as it has been respectfully referred to, is big on lists of our student travellers. Last-minute organizations were underway as students prepared themselves for the 30-hour drive, while visions of flamingos, palm trees and members of the opposite sex danced through their heads.

But, by far the most organized vacation this March break is a three-week exchange with the town of Carpentras, France, to be undertaken by 11 of Stouffville's best diplomats. Students from Carpentras visited our fair town last year at this time, and we are now returning the visit (we because I am one of the diplomats). As you can probably imagine, we are a little excited as old friendships are soon to be renewed, and France's capital, Paris, and beautiful Loire Valley are highlighted on our itinerary.

And as excitement rose this week, we received a pleasant surprise. The Night School Coffee Fund, under the supervision of Wayne Nugent, donated $110 to our cause.

Travellers Patrick Alles, Jane Anderson, Doreen Chee, Shaheen Doctor, Patti Goldman, Coriette Hofstee, Pamela Powell, James Snow, Craig Thompson and our leader, Miss Cunningham, are grateful for the night school's generous support.

So there you have it. March break vacations abound and astound at SDSS. And for those of you left in Stouffville for our springtime siesta... Adieu! We'll see you in April!!

Gormley news

Family mourns death

By EVELYN MILSTED
GORMLEY — Sympathy is expressed to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Doust and to Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bolender on the death of a loving sister and aunt, Dorothy Doust.

Miss Doust had heart problems for some time and had been a patient in several hospitals. When not in hospital, she was lovingly cared for by her niece, Vera Bolender.

A service was held Monday afternoon from the Marshall

Funeral Home in Richmond Hill. In other news, Miss Louise Bolender is spending a week's vacation in Bermuda.

Mrs. Allan Doner and son Marilyn of Kitchener visited Mrs. Fred Doust on Sunday afternoon.

Gormley Women's Institute will meet March 25 at 7:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. D. Andrew. Roll call is 'Where did your ancestors come from?' Mrs. B. Risbrough, a convener of Family and Consumer Affairs, will have the program. The River Brethren Singing group from Niagara Christian College, Fort Erie, will provide a musical program at Heise Hill Church Sunday, March 29, at 11 a.m. A congregational potluck dinner will follow the service.

A community shower in honor of Marguerite Frisby will be held at 8:30 p.m., March 26, at the Victoria Community Centre.

Heber McCague celebrates his 90th birthday shortly. An open house will be held in his honor at the Victoria Square Community Centre on Saturday, April 4 from 2 to 4 p.m., and 7 to 9 p.m.

Law firm moves into Turner House

STOUFFVILLE — Three Toronto lawyers will occupy the entire second floor of Stouffville's historic Turner House at 49 Main Street East.

The firm of Emery, Reka & Johnson Barristers and Solicitors expect to be fully moved into its new Stouffville law office by April 1. An open house is scheduled later that month.

Joan Connolly-Jones opened Pine Door Esthetic Skin Care in the building's lower level last November.

The former residence of Grant and Betty Turner was purchased in 1986 by Markham-based DBK Management and converted into a business complex.
