

Christian rockers playing Stouffville

Christian rock band Servant brings its music with a message to Stouffville District Secondary School on Saturday, March 28. The Cincinatti, Ohio-based group has travelled extensively across North America during the past 10 years, and is being brought to Stouffville by a private group of Christians who are interested in youth ministry.

"The concert is not being run to raise money and ticket prices have been kept low to see that we simply cover costs," explained show co-organizer Charlie Mashinter.

Supported by a Christian community ministering to those in the inner city, the members of Servant use music to express their faith in Christ.

The band, which recently released its fifth album, Swimming in a Human Ocean, attempts to communicate with young people using the medium of rock music and a full-light show.

Servant's Stouffville performance begins at 7:30 p.m. in the SDSS auditorium. There are no reserved seats so fans are urged to arrive early as a large crowd is expected.

Tickets, $7 at the door, will be available on a first-come, first-serve basis. Doors open at 6:30 p.m.

Uxbridge brass salute

Uxbridge Chamber Choir is readying for its Salute to Brass concert in the Music Hall Saturday, April 4 at 8 p.m.

Tom Baker will direct the acclaimed vocal group along with special guests The Dorian Brass.

Tickets, $7.50 for adults and $5 for senior citizens and students, are available at Yellow Brick Road in Uxbridge or at the door. For more information contact 852-5255.

A door prize of dinner for two at the Hobby Horse Arms restaurant will be drawn during the performance.

Serving up meaningful music

Christian rockers Servant from Cincinatti, Ohio, visit Stouffville March 28 for a 7:30 p.m. concert at SDSS. The show is sponsored by a group of Christians as part of an area youth ministry.
