GALLERY BROUGHAM

In a century-old school house in Brougham, the works of the talented young wildlife artist Marc Barrie are featured. Marc is a local self-taught artist who attended Uxbridge High School and who for a time was political cartoonist for a community news paper.

Marc Barrie's art is widely collected and is represented in 20 countries. He is recognized as one of Canada's finest artists in the field of high realism in nature art. The observation of nature while on field trips provides the vibrancy found in his paintings.

Original works, limited editions and artist's proofs are for sale at the gallery. Greeting cards are also available.
Brougham, Highway 7 just west of the Brock Road.
