Country carnage

Today, our newspapers are crammed with bad news about acid rain, free trade, losing the auto pact, Iran, Lebanon, Afgahnistan and many other things with which we Canadians must contend.

I don't think we should have to put up with those individuals who, every time they see a beautiful country road, have visions of an endless garbage dump.

I suggest you take a walk along the 9th Concession, the 10th Concession and 19th Avenue. The carnage is devestating.

I wish these imbeciles would stop and think before showing their wanton disregard for those of us who enjoy the beauty of the countryside.

Many will blame it on the young and the old. In my opinion, the problem lies with the age group in between.

Rev. Bruce Hisey

Beloved pastor to congregations over fifty years

When but a lad of eight, Bruce Hisey attended Sunday School at Second Markham Baptist Church.

His parents, Samuel and Priscilla Hisey had moved to the Stouffville area from Glen Allen, Ont., near Kitchener.

Because of this association, and later a period of ministry there, it was fitting the funeral service, Wednesday, should be held at the same location, now Springvale Baptist Church, R.R. 4, Stouffville.

Rev. Hisey passed away March 22 at Parkview Home, Stouffville. He was 76.

It was following completion of his elementary and secondary school education that Mr. Hisey enrolled in the Toronto Baptist Seminary. There he met and later married Hilda Broad, a union of 49 years.

Rev. Hisey was a kindly man who endeared himself to everyone he met. During his more than 50 years in the ministry, he touched the lives of many people.

He served congregations at Willowdale, Second Markham, Baker Hill, Bobcaygeon, Otterville and St. Mary's. He also ministered for three years in Quebec before returning to Ontario.

Rev. and Mrs. Hisey moved to Parkview Home from St. Catharines in July. Mr. Hisey was taken ill last fall and spent five months in St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto.

Rev. Hisey was proud of his family — sons Paul of St. Catharines; David of Huntsville and John of Stouffville; grandchildren Andrew and Jonathon; Scott and Meredith; Chris and Kelly. A brother, Rev. Lorne Hisey resides in Ottawa. He was predeceased by four brothers — Rev. Roy Hisey, Clifford, Milton and Earl.

Rev. Bob Flemming of Springvale Baptist Church conducted the funeral service assisted by Rev. Allan Vincent and Rev. Timothy Starr. Pall-bearers were four grandsons — Andrew, Jonathon, Scott and Chris Hisey; Murray and Ron Hisey.

REV. BRUCE HISEY

An 'old' friend

Dear Editor:

Thanks for the story on 'old' friend Bob Davies. I haven't seen him (or heard him) in years.

I used to be a regular patron at The Longhorn Restaurant near Newmarket when Bob was a performer there. Since then, I thought he'd disappeared from the face of the earth. I'm glad he lives as close as Stouffville. Your town is the beneficiary of a great guy with a terrific talent.

Strange as it may seem, I spotted Bob's smiling face in The Tribune's March 25 issue. I was a patient in York County Hospital at Newmarket at the time. My health took an immediate turn for the better.
